

TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD: CHAPTER 4 SUMMARY

- The school year was not the best for Scout. She is far above the curriculum and spends most of her days being frustrated.
- One day she passes the Radley house and sees tinfoil sticking out of the knothole of one of the trees. She reaches in and finds gum. She tells Jem and he tells her to spit the gum out.
- On the last day of school they find two "Indian head" pennies in the hole.
- Dill comes back to Maycomb in the summer. The kids start their games up again – and they soon begin playing a game called "Boo Radley" where they act out the Radley incidents.
- Atticus catches them and asks if their game has to do with the Radley's. Jem denies it so they are not sure if playing this game is a good idea.

English Journal, 1963 Developing Verbal Talent Joyce

VanTassel-Baska, Dana T. Johnson, Linda Neal Boyce, 1996 This extraordinary new work focuses on developing a language arts curriculum for high ability learners in grades K-8. It brings together some of the most experienced and renowned educational experts who are deeply involved in finding ways to restore excellence in our nation's classrooms. The book is in part the outgrowth of the curriculum development project in the language arts funded through the Jacob Javits Act. A central theme of the book is the process of talent development. It discusses how to recognize gifted children and how to provide opportunities for them to enhance their talents. The book describes a curriculum framework for language arts development that emphasizes analytical and interpretive reading skills, persuasive writing, debate, and oral communication, evaluative listening, reasoning, and linguistic competency. The curriculum approach is interdisciplinary and it encourages students to use higher level thinking skills to analyze what they read, write, and say. Although the book focuses on high ability learners, it also describes how techniques found effective with gifted learners can be used for all students. The Internet Resource Directory for K-12 Teachers and Librarians Elizabeth B. Miller, 2000 Directory of information useful for K-12 students and teachers which can be accessed by e-mail, gopher, usenet, telnet, and file transfer protocol (FTP). The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books, 2007 Canadiana, 1985 Learning to Teach Richard Arends, 2008-10-31 This best selling text provides comprehensive coverage of general teaching methods and models. The most balanced text in its field. Learning to Teach strikes a harmony by integrating researched based foundations with practical consideration and opportunity for real world application. The text provides strong coverage of both teacher centered and student centered models. By covering all major teaching models plus the leadership skills of teaching including planning, classroom management, assessment, motivation, and management of time and space. Learning to Teach helps future teachers master both the theory and application of successful teaching. Thinking/writing Carol Booth Olson, 1992 Library Media Connection, 1999 American Reference Books Annual, 2002 Bohdan S. Wynar, Libraries Unlimited, 2002-05 This source of information on contemporary American reference works is intended for the library and information community. It has nearly 1600 descriptive and evaluative entries and reviews material from more than 300 publishers in nearly 500 subject areas. It should help the user keep abreast of reference publications in all fields, answer everyday questions, and build up reference collections. Box Office, 1963 Introduction to Paralegal Studies Linda L. Edwards, Edwards, 2002 Introduction to Paralegal Studies utilizes a storytelling approach that provides a context in which students can assimilate and organize new concepts. The student is taken from the introduction to the client to the final collection of the judgment in the chronology that would normally occur in litigation. The text explores practical considerations such as docketing, timelines, office politics, setting up and organizing files, timekeeping, and asset assessment. Strategic decisions are also explored as they arise naturally in the discovery process, motion practice, trial, and judgment collection. The text contains a number of entertaining forums in which to practice legal terminology and integrate legal concepts such as A Trip To The Movies which provides questions related to popular law related movies.
