Love Toni Morrison:

Love Toni Morrison, 2003 The epitome of a group of women's ideals about love, fatherhood, and friendship, wealthy hotel owner Bill Cosey finds his life compromised by his troubled past and his feelings about a spellbinding woman named Celestial

Toni Morrison Toni Morrison, 2008 Thirty years of interviews with the author of The Bluest Eye, Song of Solomon, Beloved, and other novels

Toni Morrison Lucille P. Fultz, 2012-11-22 Toni Morrison features a collection of ten new essays by noted Morrison scholars, including recipients of the Toni Morrison Society Book Award. Focusing upon Morrison's most recently published novels Paradise, Love, and A Mercy, the contributors to this volume revisit issues that continue to engage Morrison and are part of the currency of contemporary American literary and cultural history. These selections examine Morrison's ongoing romance with African Americans as they continue to battle the demons of race, gender, class, and poverty to name a few. Together, these essays offer comprehensive and nuanced discussions of Morrison's latest novels and provide new directions for Morrison scholarship in the 21st century. This volume provides students of literature, cultural studies, and history with an overview of Morrison's examination of African American progress and leadership at key moments in American history and culture from the Colonial Period to the present. Through their thematic interconnectedness, the essays reveal Morrison at her most brilliant in her ability to reach into the past to comment on contemporary issues.

Love Toni Morrison, 2003-10-28 From the acclaimed Nobel Prize winner, a spellbinding symphony of passion and hatred, power and perversity, color and class that spans three generations of Black women in a fading beach town. A marvelous work which enlarges our conception not only of love but of racial politics. Los Angeles Times Book Review. A Kirkus Reviews Best Fiction Book of the Century. In life, Bill Cosey enjoyed the affections of many women who would do almost anything to gain his favor. In death, his hold on them may be even stronger. Wife, daughter, granddaughter, employee, mistress. As Morrison's protagonists stake their furious claim on Cosey's memory and estate, using everything from intrigue to outright violence, she creates a work that is shrewd, funny, erotic, and heartwrenching.

Love and Narrative Form in Toni Morrison's Later Novels Jean Wyatt, 2017-03 In Love and Narrative Form in Toni Morrison's Later Novels, Jean Wyatt explores the interaction among ideas of love, narrative innovation, and reader response in Toni Morrison's seven later novels. Love comes in a new and surprising shape in each of the later novels; for example, Love presents it as the deep friendship between little girls in Home; it acts as a disruptive force producing deep changes in subjectivity, and in Jazz it becomes something one innovates and recreates each moment like jazz itself. Each novel's unconventional idea of love requires a new experimental narrative form. Wyatt analyzes the stylistic and structural innovations of each novel, showing how disturbances in narrative chronology, surprise endings, and gaps mirror the dislocated temporality and distorted emotional responses of the novels' troubled characters and demand that the reader situate the present-day problems of the characters in relation to a traumatic African American past. The narrative surprises and gaps require the reader to become an active participant in making meaning. And the texts' complex narrative strategies draw out the reader's convictions about love about gender about race and then prompt the reader to reexamine them so that reading becomes an active ethical dialogue between text and reader Wyatt uses psychoanalytic concepts to analyze Morrison's narrative structures and how they work on readers Love and Narrative Form devotes a chapter to each of Morrison's later novels Beloved Jazz Paradise Love A Mercy Home and God Help the Child Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon Jan Furman, 2003 Milkman Dead was born shortly after a neighborhood eccentric hurled himself off a rooftop in a vain attempt at flight For the rest of his life he too will be trying to fly As Morrison follows Milkman from his rustbelt city to the place of his family's origins she introduces an entire cast of strivers and seeresses liars and assassins the inhabitants of a fully realized Black world Toni Morrison Solomon Ogbede Iyasere, Marla W.
