Makomo Resources Energy For Life:

Law, Religion and the Environment in Africa M. Christian Green, Muhammed Haron, 2020-06-03 This volume explores themes of ecotheology ecofeminism environmental pollution and degradation climate change human and environmental rights sustainable development human animal relations through totem and taboo sacred sites and spaces and other environmental topics in ways that add immeasurably to the study of African environmentalisms and the interaction of law and religion In terms of religion the capability of humans not only to sin and destroy the earth but also to repair and redeem it is very much in evidence across Christianity Islam and Africa s many indigenous religious and cultural traditions In terms of law the need for effective policies and for states and governments to work with indigenous groups and communities towards environmental solutions is also apparent
