Managerial Economics Hirschey 12th Edition:

Managerial Economics K Rama Mohana, Chandra Sekhar Patro, 2023-08-08 Managerial Economics involves an analysis of the allocation of the resources available to a firm or a unit of management among the activities of that unit. It makes use of concepts and theories of economics and assists managers to make rational decisions. The present book emphasizes on conceptual clarity and simplified presentation. The book comprehensively covers all the aspects that impinge upon economic decision making of modern business units. Thus allowing a great deal of flexibility in the choice of topics that any teacher or student may wish to cover. This text would be helpful for the students of Commerce, Management, Economics, Engineering, Law and other social sciences disciplines. It is also useful to the practicing managers of various business units within and outside the country. The book integrates various concepts and ideas from the fields of economics and other subjects which have bearing on managerial decision making and policy formulation within the business unit. It provides a number of suitable examples including large number of review questions, objective type questions and exercises. The text focuses on the concepts related to macroeconomics and business decision and modern approaches to managerial economics.

Managerial Economics Donald N. Stengel, 2011-06-30 If you have good economic principles then more than likely you're making good business decisions. Although economics is sometimes dismissed as a discourse of practical relevance to only a relatively small circle of academicians and policy analysts who call themselves economists, sound economic reasoning benefits any manager of a business whether they are involved with production and operations, marketing, finance or corporate strategy. This highly respected text will help you and any business manager with managerial economics which is the application of microeconomics to business decisions. Inside you'll learn about the key relationships between price, quantity, cost, revenue and profit which are detailed for an individual firm in the form of simple conceptual models. The book includes key elements from the economics of consumer demand and the economics of production. It also discusses economic motivations for expanding a business and contributions from economics for improved organization of large firms as well as market price, quantity, equilibrium, competitive behavior and the role of market structure on market equilibrium and competition. It concludes by considering market regulation in terms of the generic problems that create the need for regulation and possible remedies for those problems.

Economic and Financial Analysis for Criminal Justice Organizations Daniel Adrian Doss, William H. Sumrall III, David H. McElreath, Don W. Jones, 2013-10-28 From small law offices to federal agencies all entities within the justice system are governed by complicated economic factors and face daily financial decision making. A complement to Strategic Finance for Criminal Justice Organizations this volume considers the justice system from a variety of economic and financial perspectives and introduces Television Production in Transition Gillian Doyle, Richard Paterson, Kenny Barr, 2021-05-03 Focusing on the growing power of transnational media corporations in an increasingly globalized environment for distribution of television content and on the effects of mergers and acquisitions involving local and independent television production companies this book examines how current and recent re structurings in ownership across the television industry reflect changing business models how they affect creativity and diversity of television output and to what extent they call for new approaches to regulation and policy Based on a major study of the UK production sector as a case study it offers a unique analysis of wider transformations in ownership affecting the television production industry worldwide and of their economic socio cultural and policy implications
