INTRO

Xerox is an international corporation serving the international document-processing and monetary services market. The service revolves in over 130 nations by its established, produced and marketed photo copiers, duplicators, facsimile items, scanners and other items. Xerox case study center on the document-processing activities of the company. The case talk about on the management control system and its patterns that assists Xerox to conquer its challenge s in maintaining its market share. It also searches how Xerox have actually ended up being today and are they still utilizing the exact same management control system or not.

PROBLEM STATEMENT

Throughout 1970 till 1980, a number of issues have actually occurred in Xerox due to absence of proper management control system. The concern began when a patent for the plain paper copier have actually expired, hence inviting new entrant. Xerox market share dropped from 96 percent to 45 percent due to the attack of competitors that had actually used a low rate. The Japanese firms were offering their product at Xerox's production cost. Next remains in 1970s, Xerox emphasize on the essential of precision and stiff system than listening to the customers.

SOLUTION

The very first concern asked was to lay out the management control system at Xerox and determine the crucial aspects that make the system work. Based Xerox case research study, prior to 1970 the management control is influenced by the analytical age where it highlights accuracy and stiff systems more than listening to the client. At that time the business set impractical target, utilize the number of people as the controller and inadequate data analysis. Besides that, the reporting and preparation process was too long and the structure is more governmental and the reporting formats were not even consistent between divisions. There are couple of issues that emerge throughout 1970 until 1980. First is the initial patent for the plain paper copier expired that lead to new entrants go into the market. Xerox market share decline due to competitors from 96 percent to 45 percent. The issue is intensifying when the Japanese firms are providing their devices at Xerox's manufacturing cost. In 1982, David Kearns, the chairman derived with a solution by developing a corporate revitalization plan called "Leadership through Quality" (LTQ). It was a mixed of competitive benchmarking and also employee involvement. The key elements of LTQ are employee 1 involvement and competitive benchmarking by implementing the best practice to improve performance. Another element is quality improvement process where it focuses in meeting customer requirement. Meanwhile in 1990s, Al Senter comes with his strategy to change the culture of Xerox. He emphasize that the Finance Executive Council (FEC) as the central focal point for finance function in Xerox. The FEC consist of senior Corporate Finance staff and the chief financial officers from Xerox operating organizations. Al also changed to standard reporting with informal reporting system as it complements the formal reporting, set proper goal to be aligned with the strategy imposed and highlight on the technological innovation as the key for success. The key element for Al strategy is by having open communication, active participation and regular interaction...
