INTRODUCTION

1.1 Introduction

This chapter explains about the overview of the thesis. It delivers a brief introduction to the study conducted. The topics tackled in this chapter are: problems background, problem statement, objectives of study, importance of study, work scope, and thesis outline.

1.2 Background of the Problem

It is clearly known that software systems have played a great role to a lot of companies in this era. The business processes have become so much involved with systems of a computer that a break down or interruption of the essential software system can cause loss of huge amount (Fahmi and Choi, 2007).

Nowadays, many companies are working on old systems. . Software maintenance, reverse engineering, quality assessment, components recycle and integration are only a few examples of software engineering activities relating old systems. A fundamental aspect related to all these processes is identification of artifacts used in a system and interpretation of relationships among them (Canfora and Di Penta, 2007).

Chapter 1 Introduction Bma:

Adopting the Tune of Expression: An Mental Symphony within Chapter 1 Introduction Bma

In some sort of consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate conversation, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony developed by the prepared word usually disappear into the background, eclipsed by the persistent noise and interruptions that permeate our lives. However, located within the pages of Chapter 1 Introduction Bma a marvelous fictional treasure brimming with natural thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an elegant composer of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts readers on an emotional journey, skillfully unraveling the concealed tunes and profound impact resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths with this emotional assessment, we shall discover the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
