Love & Literacy Paul Bambrick-Santoyo, Stephen Chiger, 2021-05-18 When our students enter middle and high school the saying goes that they stop learning to read and start reading to learn Then why is literacy still a struggle for so many of our students The reality is that elementary school isn't designed to prepare students for Othello and Song of Solomon so what do we do Love and Literacy steps into the classrooms of extraordinary teachers who have guided students to the highest levels of literacy There is magic in their teaching but that magic is replicable It starts with a simple premise kids fall in love with texts when they understand them and that understanding comes from the right knowledge and or the right strategy at the right time Love and Literacy dissects the moves of successful teachers and schools and leaves you with the tools to make these your own Research based best practices in facilitating discourse building curriculum guiding student comprehension and analysis creating a class culture where literacy thrives and more Video clips of middle and high school teachers implementing these practices An online print ready Reading and Writing Handbook that places every tool at your fingertips to implement effectively Discussion questions for your own professional learning or book study group Great reading is more than just liking books it s having the knowledge skill and desire to experience any text in all its fullness Love and Literacy guides you to create environments where students can build the will and wherewithal to truly fall in love with literacy On Point Tracy Crow,2015-09

Personal writing can be risky for anyone but for military veterans especially those suffering from post traumatic stress sharing stories can trigger painful and disturbing flashbacks Writing is also risky for the ego It is one thing to write a military story especially one based on authentic experiences it is quite another to muster the courage to share that story with others for critique and feedback Award winning journalist and author Tracy Crow presents a roadmap for writing an authentic persuasive military story Drawing from her personal experiences and those of other veteran writers and from the insights of noteworthy writing and teaching professionals On Point is the guide Crow wishes she d had when she first began writing about her military experience No previous writing guide specifically addresses the unique challenges and rewards facing soldiers who want to craft their military story with courage and candor Voices From the Voluntary Sector Frederick Bird,Frances 'Westley,2011-01-15 The voluntary sector is made up primarily of not for profit and non governmental organizations that engage with social issues Voices from the Voluntary Sector contains reasoned reflections by practitioners on some of the significant challenges faced by today s not for profit organizations in Canada Broad in scope these essays present a rich multi dimensional set of vignettes that as a whole express the vitality and humanity of the voluntary sector in Canada The contributors discuss organizational and managerial challenges social entrepreneurship and how to foster effective global movements The essays include a reflection on the ways that young people can find the courage to become leaders an exploration of the absence of First Nations peoples within voluntary sector organizations and a consideration how parental incarceration affects the life prospects of children Voices from the Voluntary Sector is a valuable resource that addresses a wide range of concerns related to the responsiveness character and leadership of third sector organizations
