To The Slaughterhouse:

To the Slaughterhouse Jean Giono, 1969 Jean Giono the author of the famous ecological parable The Man Who Planted Trees also produced one of the most affecting accounts of war ever written To the Slaughterhouse is one of his finest novels. Conscripted into the hills as the First World War comes to a small Provençal community one blazing August Giono's fiercely realistic novel contrasts the wholesale destruction of men, land, and animals at the front with the moral disintegration of the lonely and anxious people left behind. Yet not all is despair. The novel ends with a message of hope based on one of Giono's most common themes: rebirth. Book jacket

Meat, Modernity, and the Rise of the Slaughterhouse Paula Young Lee, 2008 Over the course of the nineteenth century, factory slaughterhouses replaced the hand slaughter of livestock by individual butchers who often performed this task in back rooms, letting blood run through streets. A wholly modern invention, the centralized municipal slaughterhouse was a political response to the public's increasing lack of tolerance for dirty butchering practices corresponding to changing norms of social hygiene and fear of meat-borne disease. The slaughterhouse in Europe and the Americas rationalized animal slaughter according to capitalist imperatives. What is lost and what is gained when meat becomes a commodity? What do the sites of animal slaughter reveal about our relationship to animals and nature? Essays by the best international scholars come together in this cutting-edge interdisciplinary volume to examine the cultural significance of the slaughterhouse and its impact on modernity. Contributors include Dorothee Brantz, Kyri Claflin, Jared Day, Roger Horowitz, Lindgren Johnson, Ian MacLachlan, Christopher Otter, Dominic Pacyga, Richard Perren, Jeffrey Pilcher, and Sydney Watts
