evidence of the material infrastructure of capitalism Each chapter looks to what literally appears in the backgrounds of videos and images the houses cars warehouses and spaces of the market that point back to the manufacturing and circulation of consumer goods Demonstrating the material reality of producing the self as a commodity The Influencer Factory makes a crucial contribution to our understanding of contemporary economic life Young-Girls in Echoland Andrea Jonsson, Heather Warren-Crow, 2021-11-16 Who's worse the Young Girl or the Man Child Tiqqun's Preliminary Materials for a Theory of the Young Girl is a controversial work of anticapitalist philosophy that has attracted musicians playwrights feminist theorists and men's rights activists since its publication in 1999 More than twenty years after its publication the international reverberation of Young Girls shows no signs of weakening Young Girls in Echoland Theorizing Tiqqun is a guide to this ongoing postdigital conversation engaging with artworks and textual criticism provoked by Tiqqun's audacious arguably misogynistic textual voice Heather Warren Crow and Andrea Jonsson show how Tiqqun's polarizing figure has grown and matured but also stayed unapologetically girly in the works of artists and scholars discussed here Rethinking the myth of Echo and Narcissus by performing a different kind of listening they take us on a journey from VSCO girls to basic bitches to vampires With an ear for the sound of Tiqqun's polemic and its ensemble of Anglophone and Francophone rejoinders Young Girls in Echoland offers a model for analyzing the call and response of pop philosophy and for hearing the affective rhythms of communicative capitalism Forerunners Ideas First is a thought in process series of breakthrough digital publications Written between fresh ideas and finished books Forerunners draws on scholarly work initiated in notable blogs social media conference plenaries journal articles and the synergy of academic exchange This is gray literature publishing where intense thinking change and speculation take place in scholarship Urb, 2007-07 The Return of Religion and Other Myths Maria Hlavajova, Sven Lütticken, Jill Winder, 2009 Series and the final part of a three fold project organized by BAK under same title in which the popular assumption of the return of religion to the field of artistic practice and its discourses the public sphere contemporary politics and media in the West is interrogated as a constitutive myth of our current condition Through a wide ranging selection of texts a group of artists art historians and theorists scholars of religion and sociologists unpack the historical underpinnings of religion's so called return art's long standing relationship with iconoclasm and connection to religious representation the manipulation of certain religious imagery in the mass media and contemporary art's potential to complicate and problematize commonly held beliefs about the role and potential of the image in today's world Perpetual Motion Harmony Bench, 2020-03-10 A new exploration of how digital media assert the relevance of dance in a wired world How has the Internet changed dance Dance performances can now be seen anywhere can be looped endlessly at user whim and can integrate crowds in unprecedented ways Dance practices are evolving to explore these new possibilities In Perpetual Motion Harmony Bench argues that dance is a vital part of civil society and a means for building participation and community She looks at how after 9/11 it became a crucial way of recuperating the common character of public spaces

She explores how crowdsourcing dance contributes to the project of performing a common world as well as the social relationships forged when we look at dance as a gift in the era of globalization Throughout she asks how dance brings people together in digital spaces and what dance s digital travels might mean for how we experience and express community From original research on dance today to political economies of digital media to the philosophy of dance Perpetual Motion provides an ambitious invigorating look at a commonly shared practice English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1891
