Furl that Banner David O'Connell,2006 In 1879 Abram J Ryan s name was a household name in the South especially after the publication of his book Father Ryan s Poems Republished a year later with a new title Poems Patriotic Religious and Miscellaneous and under the imprint of a Baltimore publisher with a national distribution network it would go through forty editions until 1929 The two most important poems were The Conquered Banner 1865 and The Sword of Robert Lee 1866 These works were committed to memory by three generations of school children in the South until about the middle of the twentieth century Margaret Mitchell who knew them by heart included Ryan as a character in GWTW because of her admiration for his work Ryan was the editor of the Banner of the South an anti Reconstruction newspaper in Augusta Georgia and popularized the term Lost Cause His outspoken views with regard to the policies of the federal government caused him to lose the support of the paper s owner Bishop Verot of Savannah When the paper was closed down he moved to Mobile Alabama serving as a parish priest for ten years He also spent three of these years 1872 1875 as the editor of the Catholic weekly of New Orleans the Morning Star and Catholic Messenger Until now no one has been able to understand why Ryan left the quiet life of retirement in Mississippi to begin preaching around the country to raise money Based on the study of the heretofore unknown correspondence between Ryan and two nuns in a Carmelite convent in New Orleans Ryan became convinced that he could save his soul by devoting the last years of his life to paying off the mortgage on their convent Tragically he worked himself to death in this endeavor This book is the first to place the Ryan story in its proper place
