Review of 'Sula' by Toni Morrison Joie Meier, 2013-08 Essay from the year 2012 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 100 West Chester University of Pennsylvania course African American Literary Theory language English abstract Toni Morrison s Sula is an extremely complex work of fiction that some argue functions as parable satire or Black feminist writing However the complexity of the tale of Sula and Nel s lives requires analysis including all of these elements Morrison skillfully blends together gender roles with the binary opposition as she includes Biblical allusions to give clues to the characters personalities and future actions as they struggle against their community It becomes clear to the reader through the characters actions and thoughts that the world which the Bottom created for itself is inherently contradictory as the citizens of the community struggle to maintain binary thinking Sula and Shadrack represent the evil or at least unacceptable in the traditional good evil binary that the Bottom s community upholds Both Sula and Shadrack face ostracization because of the negativity that is attached to them Shadrack however chooses to live within the acceptable boundaries of the community with his celebration of Suicide Day The community sees his celebration as bizarre but in no way a threat to their existence as the years pass Morrison 15 Sula Harold Bloom, 1999 Presents critical essays on Toni Morrison s Sula and includes a chronology a bibliography and an introduction by critic Harold Bloom NOVELS FOR STUDENTS CENGAGE LEARNING. Identity and Subalternity Imad Guemmah,2014-06-25 Essay from the year 2011 in the subject African Studies African diaspora language English abstract This paper approaches an exploration of two major themes in Sula social identity and gender subalternity I would begin with a general presentation of the major points that mark this Oscar winning novel and then shift to violently serious disagreements that bear reference to the submissive subaltern position that Sula on behalf of every woman of color has to embrace As the novel as well as a bundle of essays and articles explain the protagonist is weary of all that binds her to submission and has thus decided to follow her own way of life The analysis is held from a Postmodern perspective I would therefore attempt to build a bridge between the discourse of Morrison who is addressing her message in the name of Sula and that of postmodernism which is a deviation from representation and a turn towards self reflexiveness I am eventually describing the societal tension between Sula and her fellow denizens who are caught up in an arena of contest the ground of which is experience and circumstances
