Transmission Hari Kunzru:

Transmission Hari Kunzru, 2005-01-25 The award winning writer of White Tears and Blue Ruin takes an ultra contemporary turn with the story of an Indian computer programmer whose luxurious fantasies about life in America are shaken when he accepts a California job offer. Lonely and naive Arjun spends his days as a lowly assistant virus tester pining away for his free spirited colleague Christine. Arjun gets laid off like so many of his Silicon Valley peers and in an act of desperation to keep his job he releases a mischievous but destructive virus around the globe that has major unintended consequences. As world order unravels so does Arjun's sanity in a rollicking cataclysm that reaches Bollywood and not so coincidentally the glamorous star of Arjun's favorite Indian movie.

Transnational Narratives in Englishes of Exile Catalina Florina Florescu, Sheng-mei Ma, 2017-11-15 Monolingual monolithic English is an issue of the past. In this collection by using cinema, poetry, art and novels we demonstrate that English has become the heteroglossic language of immigration. Englishes of exile. By appropriating its plural form we pay respect to all those who have been improving standard English, thus proving that one may be born in a language as well as give birth to a language or add to it one's own version. The story of the immigrant, refugee, exile, expatriate is everybody's story and without migration we could not evolve our human race.

The Routledge Companion to Twenty-First Century Literary Fiction Daniel O'Gorman, Robert Eaglestone, 2019-01-15 The study of contemporary fiction is a fascinating yet challenging one. Contemporary fiction has immediate relevance to popular culture, the news, scholarly organizations and education where it is found on the syllabus in schools and universities but it also offers challenges. What is contemporary? How do we track cultural shifts and changes? The Routledge Companion to Twenty-First Century Literary Fiction takes on this challenge, mapping key literary trends from the year 2000 onwards as the landscape of our century continues to take shape around us. A significant and central intervention into contemporary literature, this Companion offers essential coverage of writers who have risen to prominence since then, such as Hari Kunzru, Jennifer Egan, David Mitchell, Jonathan Lethem, Ali Smith, A. L. Kennedy, Hilary Mantel, Marilynne Robinson and Colson Whitehead. Thirty-eight essays by leading and emerging international scholars cover topics such as Identity including race, sexuality, class and religion in the twenty-first century; The impact of technology, terrorism, activism and the global economy on the modern world and modern literature; The form and format of twenty-first century literary fiction including analysis of established genres such as the pastoral, graphic novels and comedic writing and how these have been adapted in recent years. Accessible to experts, students and general readers, The Routledge Companion to Twenty-First Century Literary Fiction provides a map of the critical issues central to the discipline as well as uncovering new perspectives and new directions for the development of the field. It is essential reading for anyone interested in the past, present and future of contemporary literature.
