Saturday Ian McEwan, 2009-02-24 1 INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER Dazzling and powerful The New York Times From Booker Prize winning and bestselling author of Atonement Ian McEwan s acclaimed novel Saturday follows an ordinary man through a single day whose high promise gradually turns nightmarish Saturday February 15 2003 Henry Perowne a successful neurosurgeon stands at his bedroom window before dawn and watches a plane ablaze with fire like a meteor arcing across the London sky Over the course of the following day unease gathers about Perowne as he moves among hundreds of thousands of anti war protestors who ve taken to the streets in the aftermath of 9 11 A minor car accident brings him into confrontation with Baxter a fidgety aggressive man who to Perowne's professional eye appears to be profoundly unwell. But it is not until Baxter makes a sudden appearance at the Perowne family home that Henry's earlier fears seem about to be realized. A book of great maturity beautifully alive to the fragility of happiness and all forms of violence. Everyone should read. Saturday Financial Times Ian McEwan Irena Książopolska, 2024-04-30. This book offers a discussion of seven canonical novels by Ian McEwan: The Cement Garden, The Comfort of Strangers, The Child in Time, The Innocent, Black Dogs, Atonement, On Chesil Beach, introducing radical new readings which are offered not as ultimate and conclusive solutions of the textual puzzles but as possibilities to engage with the text creatively to enrich the critical consensus and restore interpretative freedom to the readers. This project formulates a strategy of inclusive reading, an approach to the text that does not seek to reduce it to a single interpretation and yet is comprehensively informed through the analysis of the primary text, critical discussion, authorial comments and the context of the composition. Each reading demonstrates the metafictional structure of the texts, indicating that McEwan's works may be treated as invitations to roam within their worlds, examining the multiple frames of their structure and the meanings generated thereby. All the chapters attend to submerged, repressed or deliberately masked voices. The Cement Garden is seen as a multi-layered dream with a shifting hierarchy of dreamers. The Comfort of Strangers is viewed as an inverted metafiction with insubstantial characters corrupting more complex heroes. The Child in Time is read as Stephen's book written for his dead daughter. The Innocent as a memory narrative of Leonard who refuses to notice Maria's role as a spy. In Black Dogs the over-exposure of unreliability is studied as a screen for personal trauma. In the analysis of Atonement Briony's claim to authorship is questioned and Cecilia is suggested as an alternative narrative agent. Finally, examining On Chesil Beach, both characters' voices are reconstructed in search of the superior narrative power which in the end is seen to be elusive as the text seeks to undermine the hierarchy of voices. Atonement Ian McEwan, 2003-02. For use in schools and libraries only. Swift's first novel since his Booker prize winning Last Orders is a luminous and gripping tale of love, murder and redemption involving George Webb, a divorced ex-policeman turned private investigator. Nutshell Ian McEwan, 2016-09-13. NATIONAL BESTSELLER. A suspenseful, dazzlingly clever and gravely profound The Washington Post novel that brilliantly recasts Shakespeare and lends new weight to the age-old question of Hamlet's hesitation. From the Booker Prize winner and bestselling author of Atonement, Trudy has been unfaithful to her husband John. What's more, she has kicked him out of their marital home, a valuable old London town house, and in his place is his own brother, the profoundly banal Claude. The illicit couple have hatched a scheme to rid themselves of her inconvenient husband forever. But there is a witness to their plot: the inquisitive, nine-month-old resident of Trudy's womb. As Trudy's unborn son listens, bound within her body to his mother and his uncle's murderous plans, he gives us a truly new perspective on our world, seen from the confines of his In Between the Sheets Ian McEwan, 2011-02-08. Darkly brilliant short fiction by the New York Times bestselling Booker Prize winning author of Machines Like Me and Atonement. A two-timing pornographer becomes the unwilling object in the fantasies of one of his victims A jaded millionaire buys himself the perfect mistress and plunges into a hell of jealousy and despair Over the course of a weekend a guilt ridden father with his teenage daughter discovers the depths of his own blundering innocence Whether these are the written transcripts of dreams or deadly accurate maps of the tremor zones of our psyche all seven stories in this collection implicate us in the most fearful ways imaginable His stories are complex and his prose like Orwell s is as clear as windowpane McEwan s comic edge gives these stories a moral force They are not meant simply to shock and horrify middle class readers Rather like all good satire they seek to unmask hypocrisy and cruelty The Washington Post Book World

Contemporary Fiction, Celebrity Culture, and the Market for Modernism Carey Mickalites, 2022-01-13 Arguing that contemporary celebrity authors like Zadie Smith Ian McEwan Martin Amis Kazuo Ishiguro Salman Rushdie Eimear McBride and Anna Burns position their work and public personae within a received modernist canon to claim and monetize its cultural capital in the lucrative market for literary fiction this book also shows how the corporate conditions of marketing and branding have redefined older models of literary influence and innovation It contributes to a growing body of criticism focused on contemporary literature as a field in which the formal and stylistic experimentation that came to define a canon of early 20th century modernism has been renewed contested and revised Other critics have celebrated these renewals variously arguing that contemporary literature picks up on modernism s unfinished aesthetic revolutions in ways that have expanded the imaginative possibilities for fiction and revived questions of literary autonomy in the wake of postmodern nihilism While this is a compelling thesis and one that rightly questions an artificial and problematic periodization that still lingers in academic criticism those approaches generally fail to address the material conditions that structure literary production and the generation of cultural capital whether in the historical development of modernism or its contemporary permutations This book addresses this absence by proposing a materialist history of modernism s afterlives My Purple Scented Novel Ian McEwan,2018-06-19 A jewel of a short story from the bestselling award winning author of Atonement My Purple Scented Novel follows the perfect crime of literary betrayal scrupulously wrought yet unscrupulously executed Published to celebrate Ian McEwan s 70th birthday You will have heard of my friend the once celebrated novelist Jocelyn Tarbet but I suspect his memory is beginning to fade You d never heard of me the once obscure novelist Parker Sparrow until my name was publicly connected with his To a knowing few our names remain rigidly attached like the two ends of a seesaw His rise coincided with though did not cause my decline I don t deny there was wrongdoing I stole a life and I don t intend to give it back You may treat these few pages as a confession Don t miss Ian McEwan s new novel Lessons Seven Modes of Uncertainty C.
