Concise Encyclopedia of Languages of the World is an authoritative single volume reference resource comprehensively describing the major languages and language families of the world. It will provide full descriptions of the phonology, semantics, morphology, and syntax of the world's major languages, giving insights into their structure, history, and development, sounds, meaning, structure, and language family, thereby both highlighting their diversity for comparative study and contextualizing them according to their genetic relationships and regional distribution. Based on the highly acclaimed and award-winning Encyclopedia of Language and Linguistics, this volume will provide an edited collection of almost 400 articles throughout which a representative subset of the world's major languages are unfolded and explained in up-to-date terminology and authoritative interpretation by the leading scholars in linguistics. In highlighting the diversity of the world's languages from the thriving to the endangered and extinct, this work will be the first point of call to any language expert interested in this huge area. No other single volume will match the extent of language coverage or the authority of the contributors of Concise Encyclopedia of Languages of the World. Extraordinary breadth of coverage: a comprehensive selection of just under 400 articles covering the world's major languages, language families, and classification structures, issues, and dispute. Peerless quality based on 20 years of academic development on two editions of the leading reference resource in linguistics, Encyclopedia of Language and Linguistics. Unique authorship: 350 of the world's leading experts brought together for one purpose. Exceptional editorial selection, review, and validation process. Keith Brown and Sarah Ogilvie act as first-tier guarantors for article quality and coverage. Compact and affordable one-volume format makes this suitable for personal study at any institution interested in areal, descriptive, or comparative language study and at a fraction of the cost of the full encyclopedia.

Akashvani English is a programme journal of ALL INDIA RADIO. It was formerly known as The Indian Listener. It used to serve the listener as a Bradshaw of broadcasting and give the listener the useful information in an interesting manner about programmes, who writes them, take part in them, and produce them, along with photographs of performing artists. It also contains the information of major changes in the policy and service of the organisation. The Indian Listener fortnightly programme journal of AIR in English, published by The Indian State Broadcasting Service Bombay, started on 22 December 1935 and was the successor to the Indian Radio Times in English, which was published beginning in July 16 of 1927. From 22 August 1937 onwards, it used to be published by All India Radio, New Delhi. From 1950, it was turned into a weekly journal. Later, The Indian Listener became Akashvani English on 5 January 1958. It was made a fortnightly journal.
