Students will see how global businesses use technology and information systems to increase their profitability, gain market share, develop and improve their customer relations, and manage daily operations. This course demonstrates that IS is the backbone of any business, whether a student is majoring in accounting, finance, marketing, human resources, production, operations management, or MIS. In short, students will learn how information systems provide the foundation for all modern organizations, whether they are public sector, private sector, for profit, or not for profit. The United States Catalog Mary Burnham, Carol Hurd, 1928

Encyclopedia of Recorded Sound in the United States Guy A. Marco, Frank Andrews, 1993. This alphabetical reference covers the entire spectrum of the recording of sound from Edison's experimental cylinders to contemporary high technology. The major focus is on the recorded sound industry in the US, with additional material on Canada, Europe, Australia, and New Zealand. The coverage is particularly strong on the earliest periods of recorded sound history: 1877-1948, the 78 rpm era, and 1949-1982, the LP era. In addition to performers and their work, entries also cover important commercial organizations, individuals who made significant technical contributions, societies and associations, sound archives and libraries, magazines, catalogs, award winners, technical topics, special and foreign terms, copyright laws, and other areas of interest.
