

TKAM Ch 21-22 Questions

CHAPTER 21 (The Trial)

1. Calpurnia comes into the courtroom to hand a note to Atticus. What does the note say?

That his children are missing

2. Why is Jem certain that Tom Robinson will be acquitted?

Because Atticus made a compelling case and it was obvious he didn't do it.

3. What does Reverend Sykes say about his experiences in court?

A black man has never won a court case over a white man.

4. As everyone waits for the verdict, a certain impression creeps into Scout's mind. What is she remembering? What is the significance of the impression?

the jury's decision will not be based on the evidence presented in court, but rather on the racial prejudices of the community. This signifies the probability that Tom will win is very low

5. When the jury comes in, what does Scout notice about the jurors' behavior? According to her, what does their behavior signify?

She notices that none of them look at Tom which, to her, signifies that he's convicted.

6. The climax occurs when the jury gives its verdict. How does Jem react to the verdict? How does Atticus react?

He grips the railing tightly and looks sad. Atticus puts his papers in his briefcase and leaves.

7. What do you think Atticus whispers to Tom Robinson just before he leaves the courtroom?

Maybe he'll be back and find a way to get him out of this.

8. What do the black spectators do as Atticus leaves the courtroom? What does their gesture signify?

They punch Scout telling her that her dad is leaving. This signifies their respect for Atticus

CHAPTER 22

1. What does Atticus mean when he says, it "seems that only children weep"?

He means that since the adults are so used to the social norms, they don't care that he's dying, but the younger people (with common sense) are upset. They're the only ones who haven't been influenced by society yet.

2. On the morning after the trial, the kitchen table in the Finch household is "loaded with enough food to bury the family." Who brought the food, and why? What is Atticus's response?

Black people and Tom's dad to show his gratitude for helping Tom. Atticus was grateful, but he said that they should take it since times are too rough to be giving this kind of thing.

3. Jem uses the metaphor of a caterpillar in a cocoon to describe his feelings. According to him, in what way is he like a caterpillar in a cocoon? What feeling is he struggling with, and how does it relate to the trial and the town of Maycomb? What does the caterpillar symbolize?

It means he wants to be like his dad, but he's not old enough and hasn't fully reached that level of understanding yet. He feels betrayed because he thought they would be fair and kind, but they were judgemental and only focused on influence rather than equality. The caterpillar symbolizes that great things are going to come from him, they are waiting and growing everyday.
