course is not a lecture course but rather it is a semi structured hands on workshop in which trainees will use computers to learn different methods of analyzing data Thus active participation of the trainees is expected and necessary to maximize the benefit from the training The training modules focus on how to use computer software to implement a wide range of topics and analytical methods In order to cover this range of methods the course cannot provide detailed explanations of the all statistical methods themselves so it is assumed that trainees have some familiarity with statistical concepts

Hamilton,2009 Multilevel and Longitudinal Modeling Using Stata Sophia Rabe-Hesketh,Anders Skrondal,2005-08-15 Presenting a thorough and accessible treatment of generalized linear mixed models also known as multilevel or hierarchical models Multilevel and Longitudinal Modeling Using Stata explains the models and their assumptions applies methods to real data using Stata and shows how to interpret the results Beginning with the comparatively simple random intercept linear model without covariates the text develops the mixed model from first principles familiarizing the reader with terminology summarizing and relating the widely used estimating strategies and providing historical perspective Once this mixed model foundation has been established the text smoothly transitions to random intercept models with covariates and then to random coefficient models The middle chapters apply the concepts defined earlier for Gaussian models to models for binary responses e g logit and probit ordinal responses e g ordered logit and ordered probit and count responses e g Poisson Models with multiple levels of random variation are then considered as well as models with crossed nonnested random effects The most complete and up to date depiction of Stata s capacity for fitting generalized linear mixed models Multilevel and Longitudinal Modeling Using Stata serves as an ideal introduction for Stata users wishing to learn about this powerful data analysis tool DynEmp,2014 An Introduction to Survival Analysis Using Stata, Revised Edition Mario Cleves,William W.
