record our important memories so they ll be remembered How do we tell our personal stories the way they deserve to be told In keeping with successful earlier editions of Writing from Within Selling has stressed the idea that personal writing is a means to personal understanding Learning to write well starts with the subjects we know the best ourselves To write life stories writers explore vivid memories and re engage with the perspectives of their younger selves They learn to harness their inner critics and deal with fear They use their creative drive to remember details from their most significant memories The process of life story writing is as much one of self discovery as it is one of nostalgia These emotional connections to memories provide the backbone for Selling s writing instruction In this 25th anniversary edition of Writing from Within the original lessons of life story writing are included and significantly expanded upon Readers are given guidance on finding their earliest memories and on remembering details vividly Writing instruction is offered to accompany this process and ensure that readers life stories are full of clear accurate memories The core focus of the book is on unlocking memories and writing them as life stories However this Anniversary edition also provides substantial new material on Story pacing them along the way to doing so As much a tool for personal reflection as a guide to writing instruction the book represents a comprehensive discussion of the creative process Writers new and old will write with more skill understand themselves and
