Investigating Information-based Crimes Ronald L. Mendell, 2013 This comprehensive text explores the practical techniques for financial asset investigation It steers private investigators collection specialists judgment professionals and asset recovery specialists in undertaking information collection in a legal manner This new edition remains the predominate primer on how to find assets to satisfy judgments and debts but it now also includes a significant focus on the emerging underground economy New chapters cover individual and enterprise involvement in the emerging OC shadowOCO financial domain This includes the new world of OC smartphones OCO prepaid cards carding operations and electric money laundering The text explores the connections between stolen credit card information the gambling sector money laundering and the role a subject may play in a larger criminal enterprise A new chapter also discusses organized crimeOCOs impact on the Internet and financial transactions in cyberspace The book also addresses the impact of portable digital devices on civil and criminal investigations and the new challenges for investigators working through this electronic labyrinth Each chapter begins with a brief introduction and objectives and ends with a helpful summary Significant Internet and electronic sources appear in the tables at the end of chapters as do useful forms provided for gathering organizing and analyzing data New also to this edition is a glossary that defines terms introduced in the text and an appendix that provides a checklist for traditional and nontraditional asset investigations

Financial investigation is a fascinating subject that continually yields new information and this fourth edition seeks to provide an understanding of the digital forensics and mobile digital technologies for the asset investigator s toolbox of the twenty first century

Coding Democracy Maureen Webb, 2020-03-17 Hackers as vital disruptors inspiring a new wave of activism in which ordinary citizens take back democracy Hackers have a bad reputation as shady deployers of bots and destroyers of infrastructure In Coding Democracy Maureen Webb offers another view Hackers she argues can be vital disruptors Hacking is becoming a practice an ethos and a metaphor for a new wave of activism in which ordinary citizens are inventing new forms of distributed decentralized democracy for a digital era Confronted with concentrations of power mass surveillance and authoritarianism enabled by new technology the hacking movement is trying to build out democracy into cyberspace Webb travels to Berlin where she visits the Chaos Communication Camp a flagship event in the hacker world to Silicon Valley where she reports on the Apple FBI case the significance of Russian troll farms and the hacking of tractor software by desperate farmers to Barcelona to meet the hacker group XNet which has helped bring nearly 100 prominent Spanish bankers and politicians to justice for their role in the 2008 financial crisis and to Harvard and MIT to investigate the institutionalization of hacking Webb describes an amazing array of hacker experiments that could dramatically change the current political economy These ambitious hacks aim to displace such tech monoliths as Facebook and Amazon enable worker cooperatives to kill platforms like Uber give people control over their data automate trust and provide citizens a real say in governance along with capacity to reach consensus Coding Democracy is not just another optimistic declaration of technological utopianism instead it provides the tools for an urgently needed upgrade of democracy in the digital era

Happy As Larry Emdur,2022-08-01 Larry Emdur is one of Australia s most popular and enduring TV personalities Happy As is a memoir of becoming Larry Gold Logie Winner for Most Popular Personality on Australian Television 2024 Long before the game shows and morning TV Larry Emdur was just Larry a cheeky kid from Bondi who grew up paddling round the kiddies pool on a foam surfboard and rocking a safari suit and bowl haircut It was an idyllic childhood growing up in the 1970s and 80s dominated by endless summers adventures with mates sunburnt noses and board rashes all underpinned by his dad s simple rule Be nice to everyone Told with wit and warmth Happy As charts Larry s career as a professional show off from winner of the Rose Bay Public School marching parade to living room fixture From his first job pinching golf balls to that big TV break from awkward teen romances to true love from the less than impressed prize winners on The Price is Right to unexpectedly bonding with Yoko Ono this is a life affirming collection of stories about the enduring love of family and friends and just how far being nice to everyone will get you A perfect blend of nostalgia side splitting humour and heartbreaking pathos that will leave you wishing it was the 80s again Emdur s laugh out loud chronicle of his four decades in television the book also serves as a sepia toned recollection of a time when childhoods were long and families were

With Eyes of Flesh Carole R. Fontaine,2008 Carole Fontaine well known among biblical scholars for her feminist studies in the biblical wisdom traditions and the ancient Near East is also a human rights and interfaith activist working on issues of violence against Muslim women in the Middle East and Southern Asia and a board member of many agencies such as the International Network for the Rights of Female Victims of Violence in Pakistan and the Women's Forum against Fundamentalism in Iran In this collection of her essays mostly previously unpublished she brings together these two concerns distilling from the scriptures of Judaism Christianity and Islam valuable insights into current questions of human rights Unlike many writers Fontaine recognizes the critical role of gender in the fundamental concept of the Other so determinative for our view of humanity In our days Fontaine argues human rights issues have taken on a new dimension in political discourse about war peace and terror where often an appeal is made to religious and scriptural justifications for the violation or preservation of rights Fontaine urges attention to the priority of the sufferer in adjudicating meaning and turns to the little texts of daily ethics rather than grand theological abstractions in order to place scriptures in meaningful conversation with the concrete realities of our world

Faith and Hope in a War-torn Land Kenneth E. Lawson,2006 Chaplain Lawson's initial historical review of the Balkans provides the setting to help one understand what led to America's involvement in the region He deftly works his way through the key points of a confusing history that ultimately leads to US and international engagement in the area Later in the book he provides an excellent summary of the Bosnia and Kosovo regions and the consequent US presence there This background information is very helpful in understanding the crucial nature of chaplain ministry because much of the Balkans conflict is related to religious issues Chaplain Lawson's use of personal Army chaplain and chaplain assistant accounts makes up the bulk of the work His use of quotes stories written accounts and personal observations provides a broad look at religious ministry in this relatively new Army environment an environment of peacekeeping and multinational joint service coordination He points out that the religious support in the Balkans conflict was also a period in which the Army had to use the Reserve components Army National Guard and Army Reserve in a significant way

The level of criminality in upper and lower class residential areas in Accra. The study of Cantonments and Jamestown Selase Kwami,2017-08-07 Essay from the year 2017 in the subject Sociology Law and Delinquency grade University of Ghana Legon School of Social Sciences course Long Essay language English abstract This study investigates crime in two socioeconomically distinctive localities in Accra Cantonments and Jamestown Over the years scholars in the field of crime studies have attempted to ascertain a link between levels of criminal activities and socioeconomic phenomena such as poverty Despite the fact that the Ghana police service GPS claim that crime rates have been declining steadily over the years crime remains a major threat to the lives and property of people in Ghana considering the fact that the nation struggles with poverty economic inequality the proliferation of illicit drugs arms etc This study also addresses target hardening and the critical role it plays in protecting many civilians from being victims of criminal activity in their homes The main theoretical perspective of the study is the situational crime prevention theory This theory aims at finding out reasons why certain crimes occur at particular locations For instance why a crime like armed robbery or theft is prevalent in Cantonments or why physical assault is prevalent in Jamestown Using situational crime prevention as a guide this study attempts investigate the reasons why certain crimes occur at particular locations in Cantonments and Jamestown Today in order to properly deal with crime it is important to know which crimes are frequent at a particular location be it an upper class residential area or a lower class residential area Due to this reason crime mapping through the use of Geographical Information Systems GIS plays a very crucial role in identifying crime hotspots By so doing it aids the appropriate authorities in combating crime Over the course of this study property crimes such as armed robbery and burglary were found to be more prevalent in upper class residential areas like Cantonments whereas non property crimes such as physical assault and murder are more prevalent in lower class settlements like Jamestown It was also discovered that highly sophisticated target hardening measures were more common in upper class residential areas like Cantonments This study like the Crime poverty nexus studies by Owusu Oteng Ababio et al 2016 recommends that crime prevention measures carried out by the police and other authorities must be place specific This is because the unique socioeconomic circumstances of a locality determines the types of crime which are prevalent in that locality
