Black Cinema & Visual Culture Artel Great, Ed Guerrero, 2023-03-30 This culturally and politically timely collection examines new Black films and moving images that have once again excited and possibly shifted the global media landscape. At a moment some scholars have described as post post racial Black Cinema Visual Culture provides new urgent definitions and theories for Black cinema and furthers the development of its critical discourses. Gathering some of the leading scholars and critics in the field this book enriches and advances the study of Black film and media and its social and political implications at a breakthrough period of expansion in the 21st century. This anthology tackles a wide range of topics from social justice, new media, and Afrofuturism to race, gender, sexuality, mass incarceration, cultural memory, and Afrosurrealism, exploring the current climate of Black cinematic art that has proven wildly popular with domestic and global audiences, including hit films like Get Out and Marvel's Black Panther. Together these essays deepen understandings of Black visual culture, its creative image makers, the political economy of Hollywood, and the cultural politics at the intersection of modern cinema, streaming platforms, and digital technologies. Black Cinema Visual Culture will serve as an important learning tool for university courses spanning topics in film studies, American film and television, cultural studies, American studies, African Diaspora studies, media activism, social analysis, and African American studies. This volume will also provide a benchmark in popular and intellectual circles for anyone interested in popular culture, Black American cinema, media issues of race in Hollywood, or Black culture and the conditions that shape both its art and politics. Time's Up! Paul Dunn, Ronald J. Baker, 2022-11-14 Put values and value over volume with a professional services subscription model. Professional firms are built on relationships. But you wouldn't know it by observing their predominant business model, a model centered on selling transactions and inputs, not outcomes that deepen and strengthen relationships. Time's Up! offers you a guide to building a more valuable firm, one where relationships and lifetime customer value are at the center of how you create and capture value. You'll learn how to create customer lifetime values that far exceed acquisition and retention costs. Move customer relationships to the center of your firm. Leverage the collective knowledge of your customers. Elevate customers from where they are to their desired future by providing transformations where the customer is the product. Only uncommon offerings command uncommon prices. Time's Up! introduces you to a revolutionary new business model that transforms your firm, your teams, and your results with the customer right at the center of the process. Box Office, 1962 Watching TV Harry Castleman, Walter J. Podrazik, 2024-12-16 Castleman and Podrazik present a season-by-season narrative that encompasses the eras of American television from the beginning in broadcast through cable and now streaming. They deftly navigate the dizzying array of contemporary choices so that no matter where you start on the media timeline, Watching TV provides the context and background to this multi-billion-dollar enterprise. Drawing on decades of research, the authors weave together personalities, popular shows, corporate strategies, historical events, and changing technologies, enhancing the main

commentary with additional elements that include fall prime time schedule grids for every season date box timelines highlighted key text and selected photos Full of facts firsts insights and exploits from now back to the earliest days Watching TV is the standard chronology of American television and reading it is akin to channel surfing through history The fourth edition updates the story into the 2020s and looks ahead to the next waves of change This new edition is the first to also be available in a digital format

The Value Gap Courtney Brannon Donoghue, 2023-08-08 How female directors producers and writers navigate the challenges and barriers facing female driven projects at each stage of filmmaking in contemporary Hollywood Conversations about gender equity in the workplace accelerated in the 2010s with debates inside Hollywood specifically pointing to broader systemic problems of employment disparities and exploitative labor practices Compounded by the devastating MeToo revelations these problems led to a wide scale call for change The Value Gap traces female driven filmmaking across development financing production film festivals marketing and distribution examining the realities facing women working in the industry during this transformative moment Drawing from five years of extensive interviews with female producers writers and directors at different stages of their careers Courtney Brannon Donoghue examines how Hollywood business cultures value female driven projects as risky or not bankable Industry claims that movies targeting female audiences don't make money or women can't direct big budget blockbusters have long circulated to rationalize systemic gender inequities and have served to normalize studios prioritizing the white male driven status quo Through a critical media industry studies lens The Value Gap challenges this pervasive logic with firsthand accounts of women actively navigating the male dominated and conglomerate owned industrial landscape

The Business Strategies of the Major Hollywood Film Studios \(1929-2024\) Guy Di Piazza, 2025-02-21 Surveying the strategies employed by film studios to market and produce their most successful films between 1929 and present day this book incorporates multilayered comprehensive analysis on the media industry and how it works Author and business strategist Guy Di Piazza draws on over 25 years of experience and provides insights into the corporate business market and production strategies of the leading motion picture companies through a 95 year history Investigating the initiatives employed particularly for the most successful or premium films allows Guy to evaluate the commercial and creative strategies of the major film studios during four distinct historical periods The golden age of Hollywood 1929 1949 Hollywood in decline and in transition 1950 1966 The new American cinema 1967 1976 and The era of media giants 1977 2024 With extensive business strategy analysis this book assesses the film industry from a commercial and economic perspective to bring better understanding to readers as to how the major studios have evolved over time and what that means for today's digitally connected world Ideal for researchers and advanced students studying film business and the media industry as well as professionals in the film business

The Best of TV Sitcoms John Javna, 1988 A panel of 100 top TV critics reviews the best five and worst three sitcoms of each decade since the 1950s Each show's special appeal is captured in an essay by popular culture author John Javna along with 225 photos lines of dialogue and insider s gossip TV Guide ,2000 Power Surge Thomas Schatz,2026 From the author of The Genius of the System the classic tale of Hollywood s first golden age comes the story of its last Thomas Schatz returns us to an era when a newly enriched movie industry rediscovered its creative energy and indie went mainstream without losing its edge Between 1989 and 2004 all the old studios either merged with other media giants or were swallowed up by even bigger diversified behemoths leading to an infusion of money and fast tracking the digital revolution Yet even as CGI and piles of cash fueled a new breed of blockbusters Batman and Titanic Toy Story and The Lord of the Rings an indie ethos permeated the industry And at the crossroads of commodification and aesthetic vision auteurs ranging from Steven Soderbergh and Quentin Tarantino to Sofia Coppola and Ang Lee became household names Power Surge traces these trajectories which increasingly clashed and commingled during the 1990s and early 2000s resulting in nothing short of a new golden age and perhaps the last gasp of the century old studio system Cable Vision ,1987 Specifications and Drawings of Patents Issued from the U.S. Patent Office United States.
