Abstract: As a well-recognized scholar in translation study, Susan Bassnett is known for her proposal of cultural translation which claims a turn from linguistically textual analysis to more sociologically cultural study in translation discipline. Susan Bassnett's philosophy in translation studies, however, is far beyond the proposal of cultural turn. Based on a corpus analysis on the text of Translation Studies, one of Susan's popular scholarly books, this study is expected to identify more data proofs of Susan's contributions, especially those ideas of translation history, translating process and translators' subjectivity, which will bring significant inspirations for those in translation explorations.

Keywords: Susan Bassnett, Translation Studies, Corpus-based Study, Translation Ideas, Philosophy.

1. Introduction

Translation studies, along with its establishment as a separate discipline since James S. Holmes' publication of The Name and Nature of Translation Studies in 1972, has achieved great advancement in many fields: especially in terms of linguistic analysis of textual equivalence, cultural analysis of contextual adaptation, and sociological analysis of poetics, ideology and manipulation. During the developmental and progressive history of translation studies, Susan Bassnett stands among those iconic figures who have made significant contributions to this discipline and therefore, deserves to be fully explored.

Susan Bassnett is well recognized and often reviewed for her proposal and also promotion of culture translation, together with André Lefevere. But her philosophy of translation studies is more than so-called comparative literature and cultural translation. Her ideas included in her publication of the Translation Studies show a general but comprehensive system of her ideas in translation history, translating practice and translators' subjectivity, a full and close examination of which will be beneficial to all those who are searching on their road to the pursuit of truth and nature of translation studies.

2. Literature Review

2.1. Book Review

As a productive scholar in comparative literature and translation studies, Susan Bassnett has issued many literatures in transdisciplinary studies as world literature, multilingual culture, and cross-cultural translation, including monographic publications and multi-authorial editions. Susan's role in English scholarship has aroused many interests, the majority of which are book reviews. Elrad (2010), for example, together with Santiago (2010) and Rosa (2016), has brought us some general reviews about Susan's interdisciplinary ideas that embodied in some of her books.

According to Elrad (2010), Bassnett is a specialist in translation theory and practice who sees translations as "rewritings" or a "force for literary renewal and innovation", affirms the vital role that translation plays in literary history and innovation and gives provocative and seminal reflections about "dominant" and "emergent" cultures. Susan creates the idea of "plurivocality" and advocates the study in fields of history of translation and rereading but denies assigning them the status of a discipline.

By a short review on Susan's co-edition of The Translator as Writer with Peter Bush (2006), Santiago (2010) recalls their claims of the central interpretive role of the translator, especially that role of translators in literary translations like dramas, fictions and poetics. Santiago (2010) has highlighted the attentions on translators and translators' interventions, creations and subjectivities that Susan and Peter have paid in their publications.

Rosa (2016) has also found Susan's focus on the centrality of translators and of translations, which, just as he quotes, "is at the heart of (today's) global communication. What Susan has exposed, according to Rosa (2016), is first the fallacy of translation as an unproblematic simple process of mere linguistic transfer and second, most importantly, the misunderstanding of the idea of translational equivalence as sameness. And even more than that, Rosa (2016) identifies that Susan has also introduced a central notion of translation as rewriting which, to some extent, has acknowledged the central role of the often-disparaged translator and therefore is significant for further translation studies.

2.2. Face-to-face Interview

Different from the book reviews which tend to have a reflection of Susan's achievements in her scholarly publications, some other literature gives narratives and also discussions on Susan's concepts from perspectives of face-to-face interviews; among which, Zhang (2016) is a good example. Starting from the field of comparative literature, Zhang (2016) shows how Susan Bassnett develops her ideas about comparative literature, expounds her opinions about the cultural turn in translation studies, gives her responds to accusations of Eurocentrism and explains the global directions that comparative literature is going as well as the specific fields and demands that comparative literature study is expected to involve in and to ask for.
