Callings Purpose Passion Work Storycorps:

Callings David Isay, Maya Millett, 2016 The founder of StoryCorps relates the true stories of people who are doing what they love and making a difference including a man from a Texas barrio who became a public defender and a waitress who makes everyone feel at home at her diner Oral History and Qualitative Methodologies Thalia M. Mulvihill, Raji Swaminathan, 2022-02-24 Oral History and Qualitative Methodologies Educational Research for Social Justice examines oral history methodological processes involved in the doing of oral history as well as the theoretical historical and knowledge implications of using oral history for social justice projects Oral history in qualitative research is an umbrella term that integrates history life history and testimony accounts Oral history draws from various social science disciplines including educational studies history indigenous studies sociology anthropology ethnic studies women's studies and youth studies The book argues for the further development of a pedagogical culture related to oral history for educational research as part of the effort to diversify the range of human experiences educators community members and policy makers incorporate into knowledge making and knowledge using processes Early career researchers novice researchers as well as experienced researchers are invited to join social science educational researchers in developing their own oral history projects using all of the tools dispositions and epistemologies affiliated with qualitative inquiry The book will be of use in courses on qualitative research methods history anthropology women's studies and education disciplines as well as by community organizations who want to use oral history to preserve the history of communities and advance social justice projects The Rotarian: October 2016, Is Your Work Worth It? Christopher Wong Michaelson, Jennifer Tosti-Kharas, 2024-05-07 What is work that's worth doing in a life worth living A revealing exploration of the questions we ask and the stories we tell about our work According to recent studies barely a third of American workers feel engaged at work and for many people around the world happiness is lowest when earning power is highest After a global pandemic that changed why how and what people do for a living many workers find themselves wondering what makes their daily routine worthwhile In Is Your Work Worth It two professors a philosopher and organizational psychologist investigate the purpose of work and its value in our lives The book explores vital questions such as Should you work for love or money When and how much should you work What would make life worth living in a world without work What kind of mark will your work leave on the world This essential book combines inspiring and harrowing stories of real people with recent scholarship ancient wisdom arts and literature to help us clarify what worthy work looks like what tradeoffs are acceptable to pursue it and what our work can contribute to society

Faithful Witness in a Fractured World Dr. Nicole L. Johnson, Michael T. Snarr, 2019-09-11 Christians have always looked to models within the Christian faith to guide their lives At a time when the church is more identifiable by ugly partisan politics what we call crappy Christianity than by compassionate neighbor love this book highlights the lives and work of seven individuals who are pursuing their Christian calling in humility and profound love for and service to others this book

highlights the lives and work of seven individuals who are pursuing their Christian calling in humility and profound love for and service to others Their commitments have led to vocations in working with homeless women employing refugees lobbying on Capitol Hill for environmental protection healing trauma in urban communities peacemaking in Israel Palestine advocating for immigrants and walking alongside people in addiction recovery Their individual and collective witness offer compelling examples of authentic Christian life which is marked in part by active embodied faith in pursuit of the common good a broad and inclusive love for all people rightly ordered political identities and loyalties and a commitment to work toward holistic redemption of both people and the systems that constitute our life together In contrast to much of contemporary American Christianity these models of faith demonstrate that Christians should focus much more on what we are for rather than what we are against Rebuilding an Enlightened World Bill Ivey,2018-08-01 Today the long assumed belief in the permanence of an enlightened world is suddenly open to challenge Human rights participatory government and social justice are losing global influence and the world of ordinary people is pushing back against Enlightenment conceits Accumulated anger links Taliban Tea Party and Trump threatening women s rights social justice and democracy To understand and counteract the threat to these ideas we must set aside embedded explanations and embrace a new frame of observation and tolerance grounded in the power of belief legend and tradition In Rebuilding an Enlightened World Bill Ivey explores how folklore offers a unique and compelling new way to understand the underlying forces disrupting the world today If we are to salvage the best of the Enlightenment dream and build a better future we must begin to listen patiently and inquisitively in order to interpret the customs norms and traditional practices that shape all human behavior

Cultivating Vocation in Literary Studies Erin VanLaningham,Stephanie Johnson,2021-12-07 The concept of vocation has garnered significant attention as a means of speaking about purposeful living and the multiple responsibilities of civic life which converge with the broader goals of liberal education This volume addresses the important role that literary studies can and should play in that conversation With attention to the forms voices and praxis of the discipline and informed by the public humanities these thirteen chapters address critical questions for cultivating vocation in students How might the varied fields within literary studies invite students to consider meaning and purpose How might our pedagogies and theories of interpretation inform the direction of their lives The chapters offer readers a new language and framework for reinvigorating literary studies as a productive means to answer life s most significant questions while also modelling how vocational exploration can be incorporated into multiple disciplines and contexts The volume as a whole positions literary studies as vital to the conversation about value civic engagement and purpose as it shapes not only the lives of students but also the future of higher education Career and College Readiness Counseling in P-12 Schools, Second Edition Jennifer Curry,Jennifer R. Curry,Amy Milsom,2017-02-24 Praise for the First Edition Serves as an excellent foundational text I am very thankful that the authors wrote this text It is written for school counselors by school counselor educators Gene Eakin

PhD School Counseling Program Lead Oregon State University The school counseling focus makes it unique This is a great improvement to other texts I've used and I plan to continue using it Dr Carolyn Berger Chair Department of Counseling Nova Southeastern University Fully updated to serve the needs of school counselors in training this remains the only text to present a comprehensive developmental and practical approach to preparing school counselors to conceptualize the career development and college readiness needs of P 12 students The second edition reflects the ASCA's new Mindsets reflections and advice from actual school counselors updated statistics references and appendices and an updated Instructor's Manual test bank and PowerPoint slides New to the Second Edition Features a Building a College Going Culture section that expands coverage on college readiness counseling Reflects updated legislation and policy information including ASCA's new Mindsets written by former school counselors Disseminates current data and research focusing on college readiness needs of diverse populations Includes interventions grounded in theory and connected to national standards
