Groth, Katherine Spangler,2004

Written from a constructivist viewpoint this popular book for future teachers of children from preschool through the primary grades focuses on how young children construct literacy and how teachers can support and guide that activity through developmentally appropriate teaching practices Advocates giving children a choice of the reading material from which they will learn and caution against grouping children solely by literacy ability Examines current research into emergent and holistic literacy and tie its findings to instructional practices that teach such skills as phonemic awareness phonics and spelling within the context of meaningful reading and writing tasks Increased coverage of assessment emphasizes performance based alternatives to standardized testing during early childhood and examines current recommendations in terms of developmentally appropriate practice Provides a strong explanation of shared and interactive writing Discusses literacy development in infants and toddlers For future or current teachers interested in literacy or reading methods in early childhood Individualized Spelling Jillayne P. Wallaker,1997 Woodcock-Johnson Psycho-educational Battery-revised Nancy Mather, Lynne Jaffe,1992 This bestselling book is the ultimate resource for users of the WJ R The first section is comprised of a variety of recommendations for cognitive academic behavioral and social interventions The second section is intended to help translate the identified areas of need into behavioral objectives for planning instruction and developing the individual educational plan The third section presents case studies that exemplify the use of the WJ R in educational and clinical settings with clients from preschool to age 86 The fourth section the appendix contains short summaries of interventions and remedial techniques that were referred to in the recommendations THE AT RISK STUDENT IN OUR SCHOOLS STEPHEN B. MCCARNEY,1994 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1923 Learning ,1977 Material for Teachers' Manual Vermont.
