Why Law? Peter van Schilfgaarde, 2019-03-25 This book is based on the assumption that the world is governed by a widespread field of interconnected laws. In this field, man-made laws, legal laws, have to coexist with the laws of nature, the laws of science, and the laws of logic. They have to find their place in relation to a certain society. They have to relate to the demands of morality, ethics, custom, and trust. They have to follow the laws of language. They have to deal with a variety of professional and esthetic rules. They have to defend their position between art and craft. Finally, and significantly, they have to cope with a host of different ideas about truth. This book approaches law as a human construct meant to strengthen society as it develops through the ages. Knowledge of the law, legal knowledge, is of doubtful value if it ignores the demands and ideals of society. The same goes for the thinking leading to legal knowledge. This book focuses on a basic concept. That concept is met if the legal thinking leading to legal knowledge reaches the level of an independent law and society-oriented contemplative discipline. A discipline which is in that sense and to that extent in touch with cherished or less cherished parts of given law.

Another 1000 Famous Horses FJH Glover, 2022-11-13 This 2nd book is a continuation of the 1st book. The index at the back of the book is brilliant. The contents list at the front of the book is in alphabetical order and is a list of the horses' names, gives paragraph numbers. Whereas the Index gives the Rider Owner in alphanumeric order and gives paragraph numbers. So if you do not know the name of a person's horse, you would look up the person in the Index and it would indicate the paragraph numbers to find the answer. For instance, Steptoe and Son would be under S in the Index and this would lead you to Hercules, the strong man from Greek Mythology. Or Toy Story 2 would lead you to Bullseye Books 3 and 4 are in the process of compiling it's a Never Ending Story.

The Librarianist Patrick deWitt, 2023-07-04 THE INSTANT 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER Winner 2024 Stephen Leacock Memorial Medal for Humour. From bestselling and award-winning author Patrick deWitt comes the story of Bob Comet, a man who has lived his life through and for literature, unaware that his own experience is a poignant and affecting narrative in itself. Bob Comet is a retired librarian passing his solitary days surrounded by books and small comforts in a mint-colored house in Portland, Oregon. One morning on his daily walk, he encounters a confused elderly woman lost in a market and returns her to the senior center that is her home. Hoping to fill the void he's known since retiring, he begins volunteering at the center. Here, as a community of strange peers gathers around Bob, and following a happenstance brush with a painful complication from his past, the events of his life and the details of his character are revealed. Behind Bob Comet's straight man facade is the story of an unhappy child's runaway adventure during the last days of the Second World War, of true love won and stolen away, of the purpose and pride found in the librarian's vocation, and of the pleasures of a life lived to the side of the masses. Bob's experiences are imbued with melancholy but also a bright, sustained comedy. He has a talent for locating bizarre and outsized players to welcome onto the stage of his life. With his inimitable verve, skewed humor, and compassion for the outcast, Patrick deWitt has written a wide-ranging and ambitious document of the introvert's condition. The Librarianist celebrates the extraordinary in the so-called ordinary life and depicts
