

Event Proposal

Event Overview

A Human Library will be held at the library. During this event patrons will be able to "borrow" Books to have an informal conversation. The event is an opportunity for individuals to connect they would not normally have the occasion to speak to within their community, to better experiences of others and to challenge their own assumptions, prejudices and stereotypes.

The Human Books participating at the event will be volunteers who have self-identified as a on their race, age, gender, religion, sexual orientation, economic status, ability/disability, or life experience (for example, "Living with HIV"). It is important that Human Books be individuals communicate clearly and feel comfortable sharing their experiences with strangers.

This event can help to increase the visibility of the library, strengthen library partnerships organizations in the community, and help the library become a community leader in issues.

Organizational and promotional support is provided by the Ontario Library Association's Human Book @ Your Library" online toolkit.

Background Information

The Human Library concept came from Europe where it was known as the Living Library, by a Danish youth non-governmental organization called Stop the Violence in an effort to based on discrimination. The success of the concept has led to endorsement by the Nordic the Council of Europe, and the Australian Department of Immigration and Citizenship. Human have been held in countries in Western and Eastern Europe, Japan, New Zealand, Australia, States. In Canada, Human Library events have been held at Calgary Public Library, the and at Moscrop Secondary School in Burnaby, B.C. Queer Emergent Justin Perez,2025-04-11 In Queer Emergent Justin Perez explores how advances in HIV prevention work alongside broader economic and political shifts in global health to shape queer subjectivities Drawing on ethnographic research among gay and transgender communities in urban Amazonian Peru Perez describes how queer social worlds emerge through scandalous storytelling a practice of exaggerating and embellishing stories about everyday life that transgresses social norms and hierarchies Perez shows that through such storytelling gay and transgender communities contested the assumptions of global HIV prevention s shift from the provision of costly antiretrovirals to the mitigation of social conditions like discrimination and stigma He argues that the global ambition to End AIDS by 2030 is not just a technical project oriented at ending the epidemic but also a project of sexual subjectification and ongoing social transformation By taking seriously the scandalous stories that gay and transgender Peruvians circulated as they responded to new forms of HIV prevention Perez reveals how they imagine possibilities of what could be as the effort to end AIDS continues to play out in the present
