Human Resources Best Practice as a Performance Intervention in a Global Context. Facing Cross-cultural Challenges George Yiapanas, 2019-12-09. Submitted Assignment from the year 2015 in the subject Leadership and Human Resources. Miscellaneous grade 72. University of Wolverhampton course MA in Management. language English. abstract: In a global economic environment where competition changes rapidly, HR decisions have a crucial role to play in influencing the MNC's performance by improving efficiency and contributing to revenue growth. Personnel Management (PM) has always been considered a vital function, a function that was mainly dealing with routine administrative activities such as hiring employees and maintaining records The extensive competition mainly due to technology change deregulation and globalisation increased the PM s operations and upgraded the concept and perspective over it By moving on and replacing PM with Human Resource Management HRM organisations started recognising people as an important asset and as a business partner This changed the role of the HR department engaging more activities and practices such as communication recruiting training development motivation etc making HRM a more dynamic operation designed to maximise personnel s performance According to Mello 2014 Strategic Human Resource Management SHRM refers to the strategic concept of HR that gives the opportunity to HR professionals to play a more substantial role in the success of the organisation by developing systems and policies aligned with the MNC s targets and goals Obviously SHRM does not replace HRM but it empowers its role
