Costume, Makeup, and Hair Adrienne L. McLean, 2016-10-07 Movie buffs and film scholars alike often overlook the importance of makeup artists hair stylists and costumers With precious few but notable exceptions creative workers in these fields have received little public recognition even when their artistry goes on to inspire worldwide fashion trends From the acclaimed Behind the Silver Screen series Costume Makeup and Hair charts the development of these three crafts in the American film industry from the 1890s to the present Each chapter examines a different era in film history revealing how the arts of cinematic costume makeup and hair have continually adapted to new conditions making the transitions from stage to screen from monochrome to color and from analog to digital Together the book's contributors give us a remarkable glimpse into how these crafts foster creative collaboration and improvisation often fashioning striking looks and ingenious effects out of limited materials Costume Makeup and Hair not only considers these crafts in relation to a wide range of film genres from sci fi spectacles to period dramas but also examines the role they have played in the larger marketplace for fashion and beauty products Drawing on rare archival materials and lavish color illustrations this volume provides readers with both a groundbreaking history of film industry labor and an appreciation of cinematic costume makeup and hairstyling as distinct art forms

Sex Trafficking in the United States Andrea J. Nichols, 2016-08-23 Sex Trafficking in the United States is a unique exploration of the underlying dynamics of sex trafficking This comprehensive volume examines the common risk factors for those who become victims and the barriers they face when they try to leave It also looks at how and why sex traffickers enter the industry A chapter on buyers presents what we know about their motivations the prevalence of bought sex and criminal justice policies that target them Sex Trafficking in the United States describes how the justice system activists and individuals can engage in advocating for victims of sex trafficking It also offers recommendations for practice and policy and suggestions for cultural change Andrea J Nichols approaches sex trafficking related theories research policies and practice from neoliberal abolitionist feminist criminological and sociological perspectives She confronts competing views of the relationship between pornography prostitution and sex trafficking as well as the contribution of weak social institutions and safety nets to the spread of sex trafficking She also explores the link between identity based oppression societal marginalization and the risk of victimization She clearly accounts for the role of race ethnicity immigrant status LGBTQ identities age sex and intellectual disability in heightening the risk of trafficking and how social services and the criminal justice and healthcare systems can best respond This textbook is essential for understanding the mechanics of a pervasive industry and curbing its spread among at risk populations Please visit our supplemental materials page <https://cup.columbia.edu/extras/supplement-sex-trafficking-united-states> to find teaching aids including PowerPoints access to a test bank and a sample syllabus
