critiques classical approaches to strategic analysis whilst exploring alternative methods which utilise ecosystem and platform concepts as well as chaos and complexity theories The innovative study provides a critique of the neoclassical Newtonian school of strategy and proves it to be largely inappropriate as a decision making methodology in today's internet based market By developing a new biological hydrothermal vent model in which analogical comparisons are made with the Information Communication Technology ICT sector the chapters challenge existing paradigms of competitive advantage and analyse the extent to which the Internet can be considered to be an ecosystem in its own right The Internet as a Technology Based Eco System offers a range of alternative models and analytical frameworks for the analysis of internet based technology companies in the twenty first century creating a valuable tool for students and academics undertaking research in strategy technology and electronic engineering

Strategic Management and Organisational Dynamics Ralph D. Stacey, 2011 Renowned for its unconventional thinking Strategic Management and Organisational Dynamics continues to be a refreshing alternative for students and lecturers of strategic management specifically looking for something different Stacey challenges the conceptual orthodoxy of planned strategy focusing instead on the influence of more complex and unstable forces in the development of strategy This book explores and challenges ways of thinking about strategy and organisational dynamics and raises questions about systemic and responsive processes utilising insights from the complexity sciences The purpose of this book is to assist people to make sense of their own experience of life in organisations to explore their own thinking and to pay attention to and so what they do Ideal for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate study this critically detailed account deals with up to the minute issues raising the challenge of complexity within practice and theory As such it remains unique amongst strategic management text books

Conflict Sensitivity in Development, Humanitarian & Peacebuilding Practice Susanne Schmeidl, Anthony Ware, Claudio Alberti, 2025-03-28 Inspired by Mary Anderson's influential work Do No Harm 1999 this book encourages critical reflection on the development and contemporary relevance of conflict sensitivity approaches in international development humanitarian action and peacebuilding Despite the widespread acceptance of conflict sensitivity particularly in the context of worsening crises there has been a surprising lack of critical discussion and evaluation of the framework and its application This book fills this gap by bringing together a diverse collection of articles practice notes and reflections from academics and practitioners in the field of conflict sensitivity It provides a comprehensive platform for valuable debate highlighting strengths areas for improvement and practical guidance for real world application based on 25 years of conflict sensitivity do no harm practice and innovation By integrating insights from practitioners the book aims to bridge the gap between theory and practice Advocating the systematic integration of conflict sensitivity into humanitarian development and peacebuilding efforts the book offers practical guidance for implementation and adaptation in different contexts and programmes As a valuable resource it deepens understanding and promotes accountability to the populations that humanitarian development and peacebuilding actors seek to support including actors advancing conflict sensitivity in their own contexts It serves as a springboard for further academic research on conflict sensitivity This book was originally published as a special issue of Development in Practice Complexity, Organizations and Change Elizabeth McMillan,2003-12-18 Available in paperback for the first time this book describes and considers ideas and insights from complexity science and examines their use in organizations especially in bringing about major organizational change Australian Journal of Environmental Education ,2005 Issues in the Management of Agricultural Resources ,2001 Public Health Nursing Leadership Bobbie Berkowitz,2001 Comments on Argentine Trade ,1989 Law Practice Quarterly ,1999 Environment and Planning ,2007 Directory of Management Development Programmes in Nigeria ,2000 The Legacy of Herbert Simon in Economic Analysis Peter E.
