The field of educational research has grown and changed since the 1950s. Advances in technology, including the Internet, have provided access to educational research and information previously unavailable. In the 1970s and 1980s, the focus of research shifted from the individual student to the social context of the student. Research in the 1990s and 2000s has focused on the role of the teacher and the impact of the school environment on student learning. The field of educational research continues to evolve and expand as we move into the 21st century.
