On the connection and impact of job satisfaction and motivation Taha Taskinsoy,2016-03-21 Essay from the year 2016 in the subject Psychology Work Business Organisation grade 1 7 University of Applied Sciences Worms language English abstract The purpose of this essay is to analyse the connection between motivation and job satisfaction and how they influence each other With reference to the most appropriate motivation theories I will examine the factors influencing job satisfaction and increasing my own personal level of job satisfaction In addition to that I will explain how this will motivate me to give my best for the organization that I work for because I think this issue becomes more important as I am about to finish my studies and start working at a company

The Relationship Between Perception of Job Motivation, Job Satisfaction, and the Job Itself Ronald K. McDonald,1975 A study on motivational theories and motivational factors for the job performance Rudolph Marmara,2018-09-19 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2017 in the subject Leadership and Human Resources Miscellaneous grade A language English abstract Motivation is an important research area for academics and practice area for managers Various theories approaches and concepts were developed to describe different forms of motivation Today it is widely accepted that motivation is very important for managers since it is a way that leads to better work performance This study investigates and ranks in order of importance the motivational factors that enhance motivation in the Maltese Courts of Justice MCOJ Moreover it evaluates the impact of motivation on its employees work performance Both qualitative and quantitative techniques were used to collect and analyse information for this research The data was collected from a sample of 30 employees and another sample of the MCOJ Managers Later the responses are analysed with different methods and presented in different formats This study compares the findings with literature and provides areas for discussions The result is that MCOJ employees are motivated by different factors but the most influential are trust recognition praise and interpersonal relationships The impact of motivation on job performance is presented from two different perspectives the management and the employees These results are compared to each other where differences in opinion are revealed At the end of the paper the conclusion sums up all the findings and various recommendations to be implemented by the organisation are presented Finally the author recommends different areas where this research study can be used so that future research may reveal a better understanding of the concept of motivation and job performance

Employee Motivation in Saudi Arabia Rodwan Hashim Mohammed Fallatah,Jawad Syed,2017-11-29 This book investigates the relevance of Maslow s hierarchy of needs as a theory of motivation whilst taking into account variances in culture and individual experiences and perspectives Focussing on higher education the book responds to the call for providing alternative conceptual models other than those originating from the Anglo Saxon world The authors take a contextual approach and use the case of Saudi Arabia to understand motivation in a collectivist highly religious and conservative society of the Middle East Providing empirical findings from a study carried out at two Saudi universities differing in their religious outlook this book reveals a hierarchy of needs that is significantly different from the theory proposed by Maslow Religion culture and gender are explored in detail as the authors investigate the relevance of Maslow s theory in a region that is of growing interest to policy makers and practitioners in North America and Europe offering a truly insightful read to an international audience
