From the Stone Age to Thomas Merton Larry Hart, 2018-09-13 This is a book about prayer about Christian prayer about Christian contemplative or meditative prayer as a way of simply being in the loving presence of God It begins with prayer as that natural sense of the divine what has been known for centuries as the sensus divinitatis that consciousness of the mystery of God that is in each of us from the time of our birth There are many ways of praying and they all tend toward contemplation or mysticism That is toward heightening our conscious connection to God our awareness of the love of God our wakefulness to the presence of the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit in us through us and around us By tracing the origins of contemplative prayer its practice through the Old and New Testament Scriptures then across the centuries of the Christian era to the contemporary world it is hoped that the reader will develop a keener appreciation for the depth beauty and richness of the Christian spiritual tradition

The Climate of Monastic Prayer Thomas Merton, 2018-03-13 This guide to monastic prayer written in 1968 and thus turning out to be Thomas Merton s final testament to us is now available in a new edition commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of his death While he wrote it for other monastics all seekers drawn to explore the full dimensions of prayer will be enriched by his words especially as they take on added meaning in today s dizzying world The climate in which monastic prayer flowers is that of the desert where human comfort is absent where the secure routines of the earthly city offer no support and where prayer must be sustained by God in the purity of faith

John of the Cross Sam Hole,2020-11-19 Through the dark night of the soul to the depiction of the erotically charged union of the soul and God the poetry and prose works of the Spanish friar John of the Cross 1542 1591 offer a striking account of the transformation of the individual in the course of the Christian life John of the Cross Desire Transformation and Selfhood argues that these writings are animated by John s own creative and subtly conceptualized notion of erotic desire John s understanding of desire has the potential to enrich recent theological discussion of the subject but it has been curiously neglected in past scholarship To correct this lacuna this study undertakes a detailed historical analysis in three parts Firstly it attends to the patristic medieval and sixteenth century Spanish influences on John s writings showing how John reworks a long tradition of biblical Christian and Platonic reflection on the concept Secondly it traces the importance of desire through John s writings demonstrating how he develops the theme through his poetry his anthropology of the soul and his account of the spiritual ascent Thirdly it explores the reception of his writings in the twentieth century demonstrating how particular modern philosophical and theological commitments have prevented scholars from recognising the rich and distinctive shape of John s theological vision John s account of the transformation of the self with its hopeful vision of the graced transformation of the soul s desires has significance beyond the constrained modern categories of systematic theology Christian spirituality pastoral theology and mysticism it is a vision that is worthy of recovery today

The Rebirthing of God John Philip Newell,2014-06-06 Dare to imagine a new birth from deep within Christianity a fresh stirring of the Spirit The walls of Western Christianity are collapsing In many parts of the West that collapse can only be described as seismic There are three main responses or reactions to this collapse The first is to deny that it is happening The second is to frantically try to shore up the foundations of the old thing The third which I invite us into is to ask what is trying to be born that requires a radical reorientation of our vision What is the new thing that is trying to emerge from deep within us and from deep within the collective soul of Christianity from the Introduction In the midst of dramatic changes in Western Christianity internationally respected spiritual leader peacemaker and scholar John Philip Newell offers the hope of a fresh stirring of the Spirit among us He invites us to be part of a new holy birth of sacred living Speaking directly to the heart of Christians those within the well defined bounds of Christian practice and those on the disenchanting edges as well as to the faithful and seekers of other traditions he explores eight major features of a new birthing of Christianity Coming back into relationship with the Earth as sacred Reconnecting with compassion as the ground of true relationship Celebrating the Light that is at the heart of all life Reverencing the wisdom of other religious traditions Rediscovering spiritual practice as the basis for transformation Living the way of nonviolence among nations Looking to the unconscious as the wellspring of new vision Following love as the seed force of new birth in our lives and world Solitude in the Thought of Thomas Merton Richard Anthony Cashen, 1981
