Case studies are very important to be taken for teaching management in any type of course as it immerses students in real-world scenarios, fostering critical thinking, problem-solving, and decision-making skills while also bridging the gap between theory and practice. Case studies present complex real-life situations or problems that managers have faced, allowing students to analyze, discuss, and propose solutions. They encourage active participation and engagement, moving beyond passive learning by placing students in the role of decision-makers.
