The Second Cold War Luiz Alberto Moniz Bandeira,2017-05-30 This book investigates the geopolitics and strategic dimensions of US American foreign policy during George W Bush s and Barack Obama s presidential terms Based on a vast amount of empirical and historical sources the author offers deep insights into the recent political developments Arabellions along the axis of Northern Africa the Middle East and Central Asia situating them in the context of the global geopolitical and geo economical Great Game either latent or overt between USA NATO and Russia The author also analyses the influence of the US on these historical and political processes in the last two decades

Globalization JoAnn Chirico,2013-08-01 This groundbreaking text on globalization provides a comprehensive and enlightening overview of globalization issues and topics Emphasizing the theory and methods that social scientists employ to study globalization the text reveals how macro globalization processes impact individual lives from the spread of scientific discourse to which jobs are more or less likely to be offshored The author presents a clear image of the big globalization picture by skillfully exploring piece by piece a myriad of globalization topics debates theories and empirical data Compelling chapters on theory global civil society democracy cities religion institutions sports education and health care along with three chapters on global challenges help readers develop a broad understanding of key topics and issues Throughout the text the author encourages readers to relate their personal experiences to globalization processes allowing for a more meaningful and relevant learning experience

Twilight of the Social Henry A. Giroux,2015-12-03 In The Twilight of the Social Henry A Giroux looks at the decline of social spaces which enable grievances to be dealt with and considers new ways in which citizens can create social spaces today After decades of neoliberalism today s young people lack a voice and are saddled with economic political and social conditions that have rendered them marginalised and ultimately disposable Giroux covers a broad range of topics from youth and the promise of new media technologies the economic Darwinism of globalisation and the need for a renewed democratic culture The Twilight of the Social is a compelling account of the erosion in recent decades of the very idea of the social in America and other societies

Beyond the Arab Spring Mehran Kamrava,2014-12-15 The contributors to this book scrutinise the legitimacy of the Arab regimes that experienced popular uprisings in 2010 2011 and discuss the consequences of public disenchantment with them

Nongovernmental Politics Michel Feher,2007-04-25 The past present and future prospects of nongovernmental politics political activism that withdraws from traditional government but not from the politics associated with governing To be involved in politics without aspiring to govern without seeking to be governed by the best leaders without desiring to abolish all forms of government such is the condition common to practitioners of nongovernmental politics Whether these activists concern themselves with providing humanitarian aid monitoring human rights violations protecting the environment educating consumers or improving the safety of workers the legitimacy and efficacy of their initiatives demand that they forsake conventional political ambitions Yet even as they challenge specific governmental practices nongovernmental activists are still operating within the realm of politics Composed of scholarly essays on the challenges and predicaments facing nongovernmental activism profiles of unique and diverse NGOs including Memorial Global Exchange World Vision and Third World Network and interviews with major nongovernmental actors Gareth Evans of International Crisis Group Anthony Romero of the ACLU Rony Brauman of M decins sans Fronti res and Peter Lurie of Public Citizen among others this book offers a groundbreaking survey of the rapidly expanding domain of nongovernmental activism It examines nongovernmental activists motivations from belief in the universality of human rights to concerns over the fairness of corporate stakeholders claims and explores the multiple ways in which nongovernmental agencies operate It analyzes the strategic options available and focuses on some of the most remarkable sites of NGO action including borders disaster zones and the Internet Finally the book analyzes the conflicting agendas pursued by nongovernmental advocates protecting civil society from the intrusions of governments that lack accountability or wresting the world from neo liberal hegemony on the one hand and hastening the return of the Savior or restoring the social order prescribed by the Prophet on the other
