Memphis Ginger Scott, 2018-02-23 My mom always said it was just something about the way he moved The same swagger Archie Valentine wore in the ring when he took his opponents down followed him like a halo everywhere he went But make no mistake about it he was no angel He was like a drug My mother was his addict I never understood it how love could make you blind and convince you to drink the poison Not until I met Memphis Delaney At first it was the familiar form He's a fighter built like a god from the past the kind of man the universe doesn't make anymore His eyes hide a story and every time I'm in his presence I want to keep reading him until I get to the end And then there's the way he moves His boxing is violent but beautiful and his body is a seductive weapon When he's in the ring he wears the stare of a man committed to the battle until his very last breath He could end me turn me into her Too much of him will leave me as a shadow and I've lost

so much of myself already But I have discipline It came the hard way Lessons learned scars left behind and trust stripped away from life I will breathe his air but I won't fall for a man like him The only boxer who's ever going to break my heart is the one who gave me my name
