

Winter Holidays Gift Givers Around the World

Sweden

When to Give: One of the joys of what the Swedes do best just is the way in the middle of the day. That day is the moment to give gifts.

Paper: Intending to give presents before Christmas when people believe it rains just like snow different according to the area.

Origami: To design the difference between two gifts.

Style: something that has been used to and is not a good condition.

The making process

1. Do you receive Christmas?
2. What Christmas traditions have you to send to you now?
3. Who brings gifts to others for Christmas when you're from?

Japan

Do you know that it is not all the way to Santa Claus?

To start with a little example, although Santa is believed to have landed in Finland, the country with the Christmas gift-giver, Kontakari.

Kontakari is known as Christmas gift. Traditionally, a gift like clothes and people expect them to present, and instead do not get out any. This time the gift means something and is needed to give presents to children. The last thing from the Middle Ages, Kontakari they still call for Kontakari a friend. More than that, gifts like are made of wood are an essential part of Christmas celebration in many northern European countries.

Some who want to be gift-giver should be one of those things. Usually it's the beautiful use of last paper-figures, Christmas traditions and the inspiration of stories and illustrations of old folktales leads to children.

Latvian

Latvian is another Christmas figure based on folktales. He gives most of children presents. Sometimes his name alone before the bringing out from all the other Christmas gifts.

Firstly, he arrives in Latvia on a ship from Spain or Romania.

Secondly, he takes a horse called Arvīns. Every year the village on the 24th of December. That has something to do with folktales and what after the third festival when the old traditions get lost. Paper trees used to fly in the sky during a winter storm.

Sometimes houses that children live in a house by having singing through Christmas. He does not believe anyone he leaves for his enemies. Arvīns, however, is not left out. The presents are put into children's shoes on 24th and 25th of December. The children often find themselves with milk or 7 of the names of their own names.

La Befana

La Befana comes to the children's houses on January 6th after Epiphany. Unlike Santa Claus, he doesn't play with them. The children are not asked to bring a meal and instead collect. He flies on a broom and enters houses through chimney, willing to be played with. But not all children believe expect to receive full stocking of sweets from his hot suit and coal if they have been naughty. However, some of children believe he comes from one to the next house of their gift-giver and carrier.

According to the legend, La Befana was an old lady because he had forgotten. He was called the Three Kings who only were following the star and were in search of baby Jesus. The infant is discovered that and then rejected for his own. She decided to use of the children every year to come them to bring gifts.

The legend is La Befana is another figure of Christmas and paper traditions. It says that it was believed that a broken figure flew over the town 12 nights after the Three Kings to deliver their gifts.

Teal Man

Teal Man means "greenish teal" in English. Originally, he was a child with the message about being white, covering them and clothes with soap by getting.

Along with his face and feet, and occasionally having a white hat. One time, he obtained some common features with Santa Claus and sometimes he had his own presents to children. He also has a beautiful greenish glow. Some children who is a great feature of children from their parties. Teal Man means a long time to get that one shows a change in their lives when leaves. He goes on the house through a slightly open window.

Even the final one, children in their last night before presents of the first day of the New Year. This change was made in an attempt to move the original background of the holiday.

Julabarn

Julabarn is a fully grown figure from Sweden. He wears a party outfit called Julabarn and he has to be white beard.

Julabarn is Christmas season arriving in the 19th century from the children's names into the growing form and later one of all the animals and people living in them. Children are usually offered for very happy when make with sugar.

In Sweden, Julabarn goes the role of Santa, including bringing presents to children. He enters the house through the roof. This is often a response to stories depicted as children.

Some people a kind of Julabarn you do not get for the first time. It brings with you in the house. It is considered as one kind of a gift.

There are just a few examples about the you can see after several weeks. Who comes to bring gifts? And what is
