Loose Leaf Communication Matters Kory Floyd, 2013-09-09 Communication Matters Because great communicators are made not born Through Communication Matters highly interactive program students learn that our instincts aren't as good as we think they are and develop the skills needed to become effective communicators The program prompts students to question their assumptions helps them to move beyond their personal daily communication experiences and challenges them to think critically about why and how they communicate in the ways they do Connect for Communication Matters Second Edition reflects our increasingly diverse interactive and digital world by using hands on features Through an interactive eBook a suite of student videos for public speaking and dynamic online activities students are urged to consider which choices are likely to be effective and which less so LearnSmart McGraw Hill's adaptive learning system assesses students knowledge of course content and maps out personalized study plans for success The result Students are able to internalize core communication principles adapt their communication behavior more effectively and actively apply those strategies to all aspects of their lives

Exploring Communication Theory Kory Floyd, Paul Schrodt, Larry A. Erbert, Angela Trethewey, 2017-06-14 This text presents and explains theories in communication studies from the epistemological perspectives of the researchers who use them Rather than representing a specific theoretical paradigm social scientific interpretive or critical the author team presents the three major paradigms in one text each writing in his or her area of expertise Every theory is explained in a native voice from a position of deep understanding and experience improving clarity for readers The text also provides insights on using communication theory to address real life challenges Considering that theories are developed to guide scholarly research more than to provide practical advice this feature of the book helps students create realistic expectations for what theories can and cannot do and makes clear that many theories can have practical applications that students can use to their advantage in everyday life Offering a comprehensive exploration of communication theories through multiple lenses Exploring Communication Theory provides an integrated approach to studying communication theory and to demonstrating its application in the world of its readers Online resources also accompany the text For students practice quizzes to review key concepts for instructors an instructor s manual featuring chapter outlines lists of key terms discussion questions suggested further readings and both in class and out of class exercises as well as lecture slides and sample essay test questions Communication in a Civil Society Shelley D. Lane,Ruth Anne Abigail,John Gooch,2016-04-28 Uncivil acts and messages too often color our experience with others Communication in a Civil Society offers an alternative way to teach and learn about communication Every chapter focuses on communication based on respect restraint and ethical choices

Communicating with Our Families Jill K. Burk,Maryl R. McGinley,Joel S. Ward,2022-07-12 Communicating with Our Families Continuity Interruption and Transformation examines how communication technologies are shaping childhood parenthood and families by exploring topics such as parental loneliness family storytelling family technology rules mindful technology usage multigenerational communication and community The scholars in this volume work from a human communication perspective and use various research modes of inquiry including quantitative qualitative and interpretive methods Perhaps the most significant question implied by our contributors in this volume is whether the introduction of new communication technologies will fundamentally alter familial forms and if those new groupings that emerge will resemble what has been generally assumed for several millennia Race and the Senses Christopher Brown,Sachi Sekimoto,2020-06-08 In Race and the Senses Sachi Sekimoto and Christopher Brown explore the sensorial and phenomenological materiality of race as it is felt and sensed by the racialized subjects Situating the lived body as an active affective and sensing participant in racialized realities they argue that race is not simply marked on our bodies but rather felt and registered through our senses They illuminate the sensorial landscape of racialized world by combining the scholarship in sensory studies phenomenology and intercultural communication Each chapter elaborates on the felt bodily sensations of race racism and racialization that illuminate how somatic labor plays a significant role in the construction of racialized relations of sensing Their thought provoking theorizing about the relationship between race and the senses include race as a sensory assemblage the phenomenology of the racialized face and tongue kinesthetic feelings of blackness as well as the possibility of cross racial empathy Race is not merely socially constructed but multisensorially assembled engaged and experienced Grounded in the authors experiences one as a Japanese woman living in the USA and the other as an African American man from Chicago Race and the Senses is a book about how we feel the racialized world into being Films as Rhetorical Texts Janice D. Hamlet,2019-11-13 Films as Rhetorical Texts Cultivating Discussion about Race Racism and Race Relations presents critical essays focusing on select commercial films and what they can teach us about race racism and race relations in America The films in this volume are critically assessed as rhetorical texts using various aspects and components of critical race theory recognizing that race and racism are intricately ingrained in American society Contributors argue that by viewing and evaluating culture centered films often centered around race and critically analyzing them faculty and students can promote the opportunity for genuine open discussions about race racism and race relations in the United States specifically in the higher education classroom Scholars of film studies media studies race studies and education will find this book particularly useful
