Marcovaldo:

Marcovaldo Italo Calvino, 2012-10-26 A charming portrait of one man's dreams and schemes by the greatest Italian writer of the twentieth century The Guardian In this enchanting book of linked stories Italo Calvino charts the disastrous schemes of an Italian peasant an unskilled worker in a drab northern industrial city in the 1950s and 60s struggling to reconcile his old country habits with his current urban life Marcovaldo has a practiced eye for spotting natural beauty and an unquenchable longing for the unspoiled rural world of his imagination Much to the continuing puzzlement of his wife his children his boss and his neighbors he chases his dreams and gives rein to his fantasies whether it's sleeping in the great outdoors on a park bench following a stray cat or trying to catch wasps Unfortunately the results are never quite what he anticipates Spanning from the 1950s to the 1960s the twenty stories in Marcovaldo are alternately comic and melancholy farce and fantasy Throughout Calvino's unassuming masterpiece conveys the sensuous tangible qualities of life The New York Times

Difficult Games Franco Ricci, 1990-09-26 Examining Calvino's literary experiments as a young artist in search of his narrative voice Ricci explores the psychological and existential motivations intrinsically linked to the writer's need for textual and systemic patterning I racconti contains some of Calvino's least read works yet these early stories address issues present scenarios and generate a growing variation of themes that form the heart of Calvino's narrative discourse Ricci points out that melancholy permeates Calvino's works even at his most playful He suggests that if Calvino's highest merit was his sense of wonder and his urge to transform and defeat obscurantism with all the joy he could muster one must remember that his work expressed often painfully the limits of human rationalism I racconti can thus be read as a catalogue of the anxieties of both the young author and postwar Italian society The Origins of Florentine Painting, 1100-1270 Miklós

Boskovits, 1993 Attempts to provide a comprehensive study of the paintings produced in Florence between circa 1100 and 1270 the scope of the book ranges from early examples of medieval art to the generation of painters preceding Cimabue All known works of the period are included accompanied by descriptions Twentieth-century Italian Literature in English
