Grand Corruption, Unexplained Wealth and the Law Monika Baronak-Atkins, 2025-11-13 The Russia Ukraine war has highlighted the need to tackle the so called oligarch wealth Focusing on the United Kingdom and comparative perspective this book examines the recent measures taken to combat criminal finance and unexplained wealth The study critically analyses the effectiveness of current provisions for combating corruption and unexplained wealth in particular in relation to Politically Exposed Persons PEPs and organised crime The aim is to compare Unexplained Wealth Orders UWOs not only to the other pre existing provisions under the Proceeds of Crime Act POCA 2002 but also other jurisdictions with similar provisions One of the main objectives is to follow the application and workability of the provisions in the Criminal Finances Act CFA 2017 in practice and the effect not only on directly affected groups such as the respondent the relevant authority and any third parties such as financial institutions but also on the society as a whole The analysis is supported by consideration of other provisions aimed at combating grand corruption and the role of sanctions in this area The book explores the similarities and differences between the jurisdictions and identifies the lessons that can be learnt Ultimately it addresses whether the novel UWO provisions are effective in addressing unexplained wealth and proposes improvements to the law and enforcement in this area The book will be a valuable resource for researchers academics and policymakers working in the areas of Criminal Law Financial Crime Criminology and Business Studies A Companion to

British-Jewish Theatre Since the 1950s Jeanette R. Malkin, Eckart Voigts, Sarah Jane Ablett, 2021-03-25 The first of its kind this companion to British Jewish theatre brings a neglected dimension in the work of many prominent British theatre makers to the fore Its structure reflects the historical development of British Jewish theatre from the 1950s onwards beginning with an analysis of the first generation of writers that now forms the core of post war British drama including Tom Stoppard Harold Pinter and Arnold Wesker and moving on to significant thematic force fields and faultlines such as the Holocaust antisemitism and Israel Palestine The book also covers the new generation of British Jewish playwrights with a special emphasis on the contribution of women writers and the role of particular theatres in the development of British Jewish theatre as well as TV drama Included in the book are fascinating interviews with a set of significant theatre practitioners working today including Ryan Craig Patrick Marber John Nathan Julia Pascal and Nicholas Hytner The companion addresses not only aesthetic and ideological concerns but also recent transformations with regard to institutional contexts and frameworks of cultural policies Law and TV Series Adam Andrzejewski, Mateusz Salwa, 2018-09-24 The aim of this essay is to analyse TV series from the point of view of philosophical aesthetics Aiming to show how philosophy may contribute to seriality studies Andrzejewski and Salwa focus on seriality as a factor which defines the structure of TV series their aesthetic properties as well as their modes of reception TV series have been studied within media theory and cultural studies for quite a long time but they have been approached mainly in terms of their production distribution and consumption across various and changing social contexts Following the agenda of philosophical aesthetics Andrzejewski and Salwa claim instead seriality implies a sort of normativity i e that it is possible to indicate what features a television show has to have in order to be a serial show as well as the manner in which it should be watched if it is to be experienced as a serial work

Broadcasting in Japan Hitoshi Mitomo, Mikio Kimura, 2022-11-14 This book provides an analysis of the various challenges and opportunities facing the Japanese broadcasting industry It is the first book in English that explores how Japanese broadcasting especially commercial broadcasting fulfills its social mission under the threat of the increased popularity of Internet based media services as it reexamines the role and nature of broadcasting During a series of disasters and the spread of the new coronavirus in Japan while varied media connected people and supported socio economic activities broadcasting continued to be the most trusted However as Internet media attract increasing attention the trend in broadcast viewership is downward Commercial broadcasting in particular will be strongly affected by that trend and the impact of the shrinking population Recognizing that such dramatic technological and environmental changes are under way in addition to the eleven researchers participating in the visiting researcher committee at the Research Institute of the Japan Commercial Broadcasters Association JBA four research collaborators and the secretariat director of the JBA have contributed to this book They have taken up issues related to challenges and opportunities for the broadcasting industry based on their respective areas of awareness of the problems including policies for broadcasting fake news disaster responses viewer trust in television programs competition with Internet based services and the business model for broadcasting

Transformations in Criminal Jurisdiction Micheál Ó Floinn, Lindsay Farmer, Julia Hörnle, David Ormerod KC, 2023-08-24 Can traditional approaches to criminal jurisdiction adapt to the new global reality of the digital era In this innovative book leading experts in criminal international and internet law unite to address this fundamental question They consider how jurisdictional regimes are orientated around concepts of territoriality and extraterritoriality how these categories are increasingly blurred in the digital era and how a range of jurisdictional transformations are occurring in the process Part I presents novel doctrinal empirical and theoretical perspectives on criminal jurisdiction exploring how states are shaping and reimagining jurisdictional concepts in the crafting and interpretation of criminal offences and the ramifications of increasing jurisdictional concurrency in state practice Part II focuses on the investigative and enforcement powers of the state to assess how these issues are transforming traditional understandings of jurisdictional rules and boundaries the challenges and opportunities that these present for law enforcement authorities and the sorts of constraints and safeguards that may be necessary as a result The picture that emerges is a world of jurisdictional rules in a state of flux which demands the diversity of legal perspectives presented in this book for documenting rationalising and moving beyond the transformations that are taking shape in modern statecraft The Times Index, 2009 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the
