Contesting Culture Discourses Of Identity In Multi Ethnic London:

Contesting Culture Gerd Baumann,1996-04-26 A vivid 1996 ethnographic account of an aspect of contemporary British life and a challenge to the conventional discourse of community studies Contesting culture ,1996 Contesting culture Gerd Baumann,2006 Religious Pluralism in the Diaspora Pratap Kumar,2006-09-01 This book brings together the varied experiences of different cultural groups in their Diaspora context and provides insight into the various issues they have to deal with The content of the book is divided into the following broad categories Chinese Experience Japanese Brazilian and Brazilian Experience South Asian Experience Impact of 9 11 on Muslim Religious Pluralism and Issues of Religious Pluralism in the Diaspora While keeping theory to a minimum the book focuses on case studies in the hope this will facilitate scholars to engage in further theoretical work on the phenomenon of religious pluralism in the Diaspora and in answering important questions on how religious pluralism can be conceptualised and which issues need to be addressed in doing so The material is also useful for comparative studies in the academic study of religion Multifaceted Identity of Interethnic Young People Sultana Choudhry,2016-04-15 The number of interethnic individuals is one of the most striking demographic changes in Britain over the last decade Demonstrating both that identity is fluid and multifaceted rather than fixed and that people of Asian Black Chinese and White interethnic backgrounds do not necessarily experience identity conflict as proposed by some social scientists Multifaceted Identity of Interethnic Young People explores the manner in which interethnic young people define their identities In doing so it also looks at their parents and their experiences as interethnic couples in society Presenting rich new empirical information relating to young people of Black White Asian and Chinese interethnic backgrounds this book also examines the impact that inter religious relationships have upon young people s sense of identity whilst also discussing the implications of the election of America s first interethnic president As such it will be of interest to social scientists working in the fields of race ethnicity and identity Researching Identity and Interculturality Fred Dervin,Karen Risager,2014-09-19 This volume focuses on advances in research methodology in an interdisciplinary field framed by discourses of identity and interculturality It includes a range of qualitative studies studies of interaction narrative studies conversation analysis ethnographic studies postcolonial studies and critical discourse studies and emphasizes the role of discourse and power in all studies of identity and interculturality The volume particularly focuses on critical reflexivity in every stage of research including reflections on theoretical concepts such as identity and interculturality and their relationship with methodology and analytical practice reflections on researcher identity and subjectivity reflections on local and global contexts of research and reflections on language choice and linguacultural aspects of data generation analysis and communication The Social Psychology of Ethnic Identity Maykel Verkuyten,2004-12 In contrast to other disciplines social psychology has been slow in responding to the questions posed by the issue of ethnicity The Social Psychology of Ethnic Identity demonstrates the important contribution that psychology can make The central aim of this book is to show on the one hand that social psychology can be used to develop a better understanding of ethnicity and on the other hand that increased attention to ethnicity can benefit social psychology filling in theoretical and empirical gaps Based on recent research The Social Psychology of Ethnic Identity brings an original approach to subjects such as ethnic minority identity place space and time hyphenated identities and hybridity self descriptions and the ethnic self The combination of diverse approaches to this burgeoning field will be of interest to social psychologists as well as those interested in issues of identity ethnicity and migration

Hybridizing Mission Peter T. Lee, 2022-09-27 This qualitative study explores intercultural social dynamics among international Christian workers who are part of multicultural teams engaged in Christian ministries in a North African country It seeks to understand these workers lived realities at intersections of multiple cultural flows Ethnographic methods were used to collect and analyze data and forty nine international Christian workers were interviewed The findings of this study indicate that intercultural Christian workers go through complex intercultural social processes interwoven in the fabric of their everyday life These processes are mediated by their social experiences in the local North African context and their multicultural teams resulting in significant changes in their personal dispositions and social behaviors Based on these findings a working concept of diasporic habitus is developed and the practice of double discourses of culture is further examined This research suggests that some existing missiological concepts need to be revisited and recommends further interdisciplinary conversations involving cultural anthropology and sub fields in psychology about the changes that happen to people in intercultural missions It also calls for a reflexive approach to missiological research that incorporates awareness of one's situatedness and the lasting impact of historical entanglements on contemporary intercultural relations

Islam in Denmark Jørgen S. Nielsen, 2012-01-01 As a small country in western Europe Denmark shares much of the regions experiences with the immigration and settlement of Muslims But there are also differences some significant which can lead observers to misjudge events such as the cartoons affair of 2005 6 The 14 chapters in this volume present for the first time in English the fruits of extensive research and experience of the particular character of Islam in Denmark

Ways to God George F. McLean, 1999 Black Skins, Black Masks Shirley Anne Tate, 2017-07-05 Black Skin Black Masks Hybridity Dialogism Performativity offers a timely exploration of Black identity and its negotiation The book draws on empirical work recording everyday conversations between Black women friends peers and family members The conversations recorded in the book reveal the ways in which women negotiate the category of Blackness in what Tate calls a hybridity of the everyday

Discursive Constructions of Identity in European Politics Richard C. M. Mole, 2007-07-12 The editor brings together specialists from critical discourse analysis and critical approaches to communications history literature cultural studies media sociology politics and international relations to discuss the discursive construction of ethnic national and regional identities

Diaspora, Identity and the Media Myria Georgiou, 2006 In a detailed and stimulating discussion the author unravels processes of diasporic identity construction in everyday life Media consumption and communication technologies appropriation become increasingly important in the formation of shared identities for populations spread across the globe In exploring the current trends and future outlooks of diaspora this book adopts a spatial approach and looks into the locations of diasporic life the domestic the public the urban and the transnational space This multifaceted method reveals the complexity and tension of connections and networks within the diaspora and beyond

Communications ,2006 Diaspora ,2000 Resilient Rituals Marijke Steegstra,2004 How should modern Ghanaians relate to culture This is a hotly debated issue in Ghana where the annual performance of the initiation rites for Krobo girls dipo is highly contested Drawing on extensive fieldwork as well as missionary and colonial archives this book shows how the contemporary performance of dipo relates to and is shaped by Krobo encounters with missionary Christianity colonial intervention and modern nationalism Krobo responses to global processes of change involved considerable resistance and over time ongoing local struggles but also a pursuit of cultural resilience Orient ,2003 Culture Adam Kuper,1999-05-15 In Culture Adam Kuper pursues the concept of culture from the early 20th century debates about its adoption by American social science under the tutelage of Talcott Parsons What follows is the story of how the idea fared within American anthropology Cultural Dynamics ,1998 An international journal for the study of processes and temporality of culture Latino Migrants in the Jewish State Barak Kalir,2010 Examines Israel s decision to legalize the status of some undocumented non Jewish Latino migrant families on the basis of their children s cultural assimilation and identification with the State and argues that this decision signifies a recognition of the importance of practical belonging for understanding citizenship and national identity
