UN reference book core pre deployment training materials (CPTM). ,2010 New Challenges for International Peacekeeping Operations United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs,2009 Gender Roles in Peace and Security Manuela Scheuermann,Anja Zürn,2019-08-09 This volume examines the specific gender roles in peace and security The authors analyse the implementation process of United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325 in various countries and discuss systemic challenges concerning the Women Peace and Security agenda Through in depth case studies the authors shed new light on topics such as the gender related mechanisms of peace processes gender training practices for police personnel and the importance of violence prevention The volume studies the role of women in peace and security as well as questions of gender mainstreaming by adopting various theoretical concepts including feminist theories concepts of masculinity organizational and security studies It also highlights regional and transnational approaches for the implementation of the Women Peace and Security agenda namely the perspectives of the European Union NATO the UN bureaucracy and the civil society It presents best cases and political advice for tackling the problem of gender inequality in peace and security Armed Conflict, Women and Climate Change Jody M. Prescott,2018-11-21 The gender differentiated and more severe impacts of armed conflict upon women and girls are well recognised by the international community as demonstrated by UN Security Council Resolution UNSCR 1325 on Women Peace and Security and subsequent resolutions Similarly the development community has identified gender differentiated impacts upon women and girls as a result of the effects of climate change Current research and analysis has reached no consensus as to any causal relationship between climate change and armed conflict but certain studies suggest an indirect linkage between climate change effects such as food insecurity and armed conflict Little research has been conducted on the possible compounding effects that armed conflict and climate change might have on at risk population groups such as women and girls Armed Conflict Women and Climate Change explores the intersection of these three areas and allows the reader to better understand how military organisations across the world need to be sensitive to these relationships to be most effective in civilian centric operations in situations of humanitarian relief peacekeeping and even armed conflict This book examines strategy and military doctrine from NATO the UK US and Australia and explores key issues such as displacement food and energy insecurity and male out migration as well as current efforts to incorporate gender considerations in military activities and operations This innovative book will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations international development international security sustainability gender studies and law Ensuring Respect for International Humanitarian Law Eve Massingham,Annabel McConnachie,2020-07-20 This book explores the nature and scope of the provision requiring States to ensure respect for international humanitarian law IHL contained within Common Article 1 of the 1949 Geneva Conventions It examines the interpretation and application of this provision in a range of contexts both thematic and country specific

Accepting the clearly articulated notion of respect for IHL it builds on the existing literature studying the meaning of ensure respect and outlines an understanding of the concept in situations such as enacting implementing legislation diplomatic interactions regulating private actors targeting detaining persons under IHL in non international armed conflict protecting civilians including internally displaced populations and prosecuting war crimes It also considers topical issues such as counter terrorism and foreign fighting The book will be a valuable resource for practitioners academics and researchers It provides much needed practical reflection for States as to what ensuring respect entails so that governments are able to address these obligations

China's and Italy's Participation in Peacekeeping Operations Andrea de Guttry, Emanuele Sommario, Lijiang Zhu, 2014-04-28 Participation in international peace operations has become a key component of the foreign policy strategy of many countries worldwide Italy and China have been and are currently involved in various efforts to maintain and promote international peace and security including Peacekeeping Operations PKOs This book offers a description of the two countries engagement in international peace operations analyzing it through the lenses of law sociology history and politics The specific experiences of Italy and China provide an excellent opportunity for comparing and contrasting how and why foreign powers intervene in the name of peace At the same time this book focuses on a number of crucial challenges PKOs are currently facing training of personnel ensuring accountability effectively assisting war torn States in their rehabilitation effort and tries to explain how Italy China and other international actors are trying to respond to the many dilemmas and contradictions of postwar peace Contributors include academics from a wide range of disciplines and interests diplomats and practitioners involved in international peace operations

Holding UNPOL to Account Ai Kihara-Hunt, 2017-03-06 Ai Kihara Hunt s Holding UNPOL to Account Individual Criminal Accountability of United Nations Police Personnel analyzes whether the mechanisms that address criminal accountability of United Nations police personnel serving in peace operations are effective and if there is a problem how it can be mitigated The volume reviews the obligations of States and the UN to investigate and prosecute criminal acts committed by UN police and examines the jurisdictional and immunity issues involved It concludes that these do not constitute legal barriers to accountability although immunity poses some problems in practice The principal problem appears to be the lack of political will to bring prosecutions as well as a lack of transparency which makes it difficult accurately to determine the scale of the problem
