Klaus Nathaus,2016-01-22 This edited collection studies the production and dissemination of popular music tourism cinema fashion broadcasting programmes advertising and coffee in Western Europe in the twentieth century Focussing on the supply side of popular culture it addresses a field of study that is neglected in European historiography Moreover it provides a theoretical and methodological discussion that takes into account the inherent dynamics of content production and the role of cultural intermediaries in the change of cultural repertoires Taking key developments in the culture industries in the USA as a point of reference the book highlights particularities of cultural production in Europe It identifies a greater autonomy of creatives stronger influence of critics and a lesser concern with audience research as three characteristics of the production regime in Western Europe It takes into view the transfer of popular culture across the Atlantic and between European countries and offers new insights into research on the cultural Americanisation of Europe This book was originally published
