Education Outside the Classroom Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Education and Skills Committee, 2005 The Committee's report examines the wide range of outdoor learning experiences from lessons held within school grounds to residential expeditions abroad and considers the place of outdoor learning in the curriculum from foundation stage to higher education Issues discussed include the value of outdoor learning and the decline of opportunities for educational opportunities outside the classroom the barriers that deter schools from teaching outside the classroom including perceptions of risks in school trips the resources and curriculum time available for such trips availability and costs involved policy options for the Department for Education and Skills to help encourage schools improve and expand provision for outdoor learning and funding implications The Committee's recommendations include that the DfES should issue a Manifesto for Outdoor Learning which gives all students the right to outdoor learning and which should attract a similar funding level to the music manifesto around 30 million in order to deliver real change A Countryside For All Michael Sissons, 2011-08-31 The rural fuse has been lit The countryside is tinder dry Post offices and banks shops and schools are closing Farmers are going out of business Houses are becoming unaffordable as prices soar and poverty grows Pollution and over exploitation are destroying landscapes Many rural communities are on the verge of collapse Some fear the foot and mouth crisis will prove to be the last straw This book offers disturbing evidence of the background to the crisis A Countryside For All is a rallying cry for action pointing ways towards a prescription for the future This volume tackles many of the issues in a variety of new and original ways Possibly the most controversial and radical call is for the creation of a Department for the Countryside with a Secretary of State for the Countryside who would be responsible for setting a coherent set of policies to reverse the decline of rural Britain This timely book outlines the main problems facing the countryside and starts to bring together a balanced range of proposals Thought provoking filled with common sense often controversial but always fascinating it points the way forward for the countryside and for town and country as a whole Professional Practice for Landscape Architects Nicola Garmory, Clare Winsch, Rachel Tennant, 2007-03-15 This book organised in an extremely user friendly manner equips the landscape architect with all of the required knowledge in business and law It is of great value to Landscape architects throughout their academic and professional life Landscape architecture students will find this book vital to their education and it will also be useful for landscape students on non professional programmes who wish to understand the regulatory and planning backgrounds to their studies and for students on technical type landscape programmes It is compulsory reading for everyone preparing for the new Pathway to Chartership examination Not only will it help you pass the exam but you will along with the thousands of fully qualified landscape architects in the UK find it an extremely time saving reference in your busy working lives Proceedings of the Annual Conference of the Reading University Agricultural Club Reading University Agricultural Club. Conference, 1966 Rural Planning and Management

Joe Morris, 2001 Recent years have seen a resurgence of interest in the importance of the rural sector in the formulation of integrated sustainable development strategies This timely volume presents a selection of writings which explore the key issues in the debate on the management of the rural environment for sustainable development Although there are considerable differences in context between developed transitional and developing countries the volume identifies common themes in the search for sustainable livelihoods vibrant communities environmental protection and the wise use of natural resources It examines the challenges of sustainable rural development relevant concepts principles techniques analytical methods and management responses The collection contains papers on topical rural issues such as sustainable agriculture forestry tourism and protected area policy It demonstrates that while there is convergence on the approaches to sustainable development notably the emphasis on market mechanisms institution building and participation local solutions need to be found

Global Environmental Issues Frances Harris, 2005-01-28 Meeting the needs of upper level students this book treats global environmental problems as complex issues with a network of human and biophysical causes Each chapter interlinks human demands on the Earth's resources to natural biophysical change not simply a cause and effect treatment of global issues and environmental change Includes coverage of contemporary hot topics such as biodiversity urbanisation and sustainable development Global case studies two per chapter contextualise theory for students This book should have considerable appeal among undergraduate and postgraduate students in a broad range of disciplines Frances Harris has assembled a team of well qualified authors who between them consider such important environmental issues as climate and sea level change biodiversity GM crops energy supply urbanization pollution and sustainable development The style is clear and non technical the coverage is global and the text is supported by numerous figures and illustrations Boxed case studies provide useful exemplification of general issues I have no doubt that this book will be very popular with my own students in providing detailed analysis of a range of key environmental issues which are frequently reported in the media Tony Binns University of Sussex UK This book usefully realises that environmental issues are a complex blend of contested science broader socio political contexts and the concerns values attitudes and livelihoods of individuals Written by internationally recognised authors it covers major global issues such as pollution energy climate change sea level rise food production urbanisation and sustainability in an informative way with abundant case studies and illustrations which clearly exemplify just how complex the facets of the issues can be It does not offer easy solutions but it is a good exercise in awareness for the reader Stephen Trudgill Robinson College University of Cambridge UK

Geographies of Agriculture Guy Robinson, 2014-01-14 Agricultural Geography has changed dramatically in recent decades reflecting the transformation of the farming industry itself Geographies of Agriculture embraces these changes applying ideas and methods from contemporary social science as it moves beyond farm based production to address current issues affecting the production and consumption of food and fibre throughout the world The book places special emphasis on topics that reflect globalisation processes integration of agriculture into the wider agri food system concern with attaining sustainable production systems and the importance of both government and supra government policies Examples are drawn from North America Western Europe and the developing world Geographies of Agriculture will appeal especially to Geography students but should also be of interest to a broader range of students in Sociology Economics and Development Studies and anyone interested in agriculture food production and consumption and rural development ECOS ,1992 Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,2010 State of the Environment of England and Wales Great Britain. Environment Agency,2000 Presents detailed assessments of the state of the environment of England and Wales The book brings together and analyzes information on the coastal environment from various points of view resources biodiversity quality ecological health and aesthetic quality Countryside Stewardship Countryside Commission,1996 The Wisconsin Environmental Education Board ... Grant Recipients Wisconsin Environmental Education Board,2013 Catalogue of British Official Publications Not Published by HMSO. ,1994 Statistical News ,1997 Statutory Instruments Great Britain,1992 British Wildlife ,2004 Tree Biotechnology Michael Raymond Davey,1998 Contains the 40 papers presented to the AGM of the UK Tree Biotechnology Group in 1997 covering a broad range of activities in progress such as the establishment of the National Forest the Farm Woodlands programme micropropagation techniques and DNA fingerprinting of trees East Midland Geographer ,1997 A Right to Roam Marion Shoard,1999 Should there be greater access to Britain s countryside For a thousand years British people have been battling against the Trespassers will be Prosecuted mentality of landowners Now however the law of trespass is under challenge After mass trespasses and days of protest against Forbidden Britain we have a government committed to creating a general right of public access over at least part of rural Britain But such a right to roam will be fiercely resisted by some What would it really mean for agriculture forestry and wildlife as well as recreation Who would benefit and who would lose out In this illuminating book Marion Shoard dubbed the Rachel Carson of the British conservation movement answers these questions and places them in what turns out to be a fascinating historical philosophical and political context The result provides essential reading for anyone concerned about the balance of power in a changing Britain as well as the fate of our changing countryside Current Index to Journals in Education ,2000-04
