Teaching Critical Thinking in Psychology Dana S. Dunn, Jane S. Halonen, Randolph A. Smith, 2009-01-30 Teaching Critical Thinking in Psychology features current scholarship on effectively teaching critical thinking skills at all levels of psychology. Offers novel nontraditional approaches to teaching critical thinking including strategies, tactics, diversity issues, service learning, and the use of case studies. Provides new course delivery formats by which faculty can create online course materials to foster critical thinking within a diverse student audience. Places specific emphasis on how to both teach and assess critical thinking in the classroom as well as issues of wider program assessment. Discusses ways to use critical thinking in courses ranging from introductory level to upper level including statistics and research methods courses, cognitive psychology, and capstone offerings.

Critical Thinking, Thoughtful Writing John Chaffee, Christine McMahan, Barbara Stout, 2005. Written by leading educators in interdisciplinary critical thinking, this popular rhetoric with readings makes a direct link between learning to write and read effectively and developing critical thinking skills. Each chapter focuses on a particular critical thinking skill such as problem solving or analyzing complex issues, which is practiced and explored through Thinking Writing Activities and thematically linked readings. Students further develop these skills through carefully sequenced pedagogy that promotes writing and a cross-disciplinary approach that asks them to critically evaluate a variety of readings.

A Guide to College Success for Post-traditional Students Henry S. Merrill, 2018-08-23. This book guides post-traditional students in the OWLS Department at Texas State University to earn a BAAS degree. It covers applied coursework, prior learning assessment, and flexible programs. It addresses the unique needs of students over 25, often juggling multiple roles, seeking relevant, interactive learning.

Distributed Learning Tasha Maddison, Maha Kumaran, 2016-10-12. The field of distributed learning is constantly evolving. Online technology provides instructors with the flexibility to offer meaningful instruction to students who are at a distance or in some cases right on campus but still unable to be physically present in the classroom. This dynamic environment challenges librarians to monitor, learn, adapt, collaborate, and use new technological advances in order to make the best use of techniques to engage students and improve learning outcomes and success rates. Distributed Learning provides evidence-based information on a variety of issues surrounding online teaching and learning from the perspective of librarians. Includes extensive literature search on distributed learning. Provides pedagogy, developing content, and technology by librarians. Shows the importance of collaboration and buy-in from all parties involved.
