and more Redefining Roles Megan Swihart Jewell, Joseph Cheatle, 2021-07-12 Redefining Roles is the first book to recognize and provide sustained focus on the presence of professional faculty and graduate student consultants in writing centers. A significant number of writing centers employ non-peer consultants yet most major training manuals are geared toward undergraduate tutoring practices or administrators. This collection systematically addresses this gap in the literature while initiating new conversations regarding writing center staffing. Thirty-two authors, consultants and administrators from diverse centers from large public four-year institutions to a private online-for-profit university provide both theoretical frameworks and practical applications in eighteen chapters. Ten chapters focus on graduate consultants and address issues of authority, training, professional development and mentoring and eight focus on professional and faculty consultant training as well as specific issues of identity and authority. By sharing these voices Redefining Roles broadens the very idea of writing centers while opening the door to more dialogue on the important role these practitioners play. Redefining Roles is designed for writing center practitioners, scholars and staff. It is also a necessary addition to help campus administrators in the ongoing struggle to validate the intellectually complex work that such staff performs. Contributors: Fallon N.
