Tourism and the Spectre of Unlimited Change Hazel Tucker, 2024-02-05 This insightful volume forms a sequel to Living with Tourism Negotiating Identities in a Turkish Village tracking the tourism development and associated social change in the small town of Greme in

Turkey's Cappadocia region within the last two decades. Carefully crafted chapters explore the significant changes in the tourism forms, place identity, and social relations in the town. On one level, tourism business and Greme's living with tourism has matured and thrived; the place has due largely to its booming hot air ballooning sector become an Instagram sensation. Some Greme families have become very wealthy, and tourism has enabled many local women as well as men to craft new selves. On another level, new inequalities and tensions constantly emerge: some families remain poor, gentrification and hotel developments in the older cave house neighbourhoods have led to the disintegration of community, and many people, including those who are now wealthy, talk often with a sense of nostalgia and regret about what Greme has become. This book is a groundbreaking longitudinal account recounting the story of the place and people of Greme still living with tourism after 40 years, showing how broader contemporary tourism trends such as changes in tourism markets and use of digital technology and increased security fears manifest at the local level in tourism destinations. This book provides new insights for scholars of tourism, anthropology, geography, and social studies who wish to gain a deeper understanding of this global phenomenon in the contemporary world.

Insights on Consumer Psychology in the Digital Landscape Mouloudj, Kamel, Bouarar, Ahmed Chemseddine, 2025-08-29. In recent years, the digital landscape has dramatically transformed the way consumers interact with products, services, and brands. As technology continues to evolve, so too do the behaviors, motivations, and perceptions of consumers in the digital realm. The advent of e-commerce, social media platforms, and mobile technologies has led to new ways of communicating, shopping, and engaging with brands, presenting both challenges and opportunities for marketers and researchers alike. Understanding the psychological factors that drive consumer decisions online is crucial for businesses looking to thrive in this dynamic environment. Insights on Consumer Psychology in the Digital Landscape provides a comprehensive exploration of consumer psychology in the digital age. By delving into both theoretical and practical aspects, it seeks to uncover the hidden psychological processes that influence consumers' online behaviors. Covering topics such as buying behavior, digital trust, and sustainable consumption, this book is an excellent resource for psychologists, marketers, business practitioners, researchers, academicians, and more.

All I Ever Wanted Was to Be Hot Lucinda 'Froomes' Price, 2024-09-03. I have always known that a woman's greatest power is her looks. For most of my life, I just took it as the way things were, a fact not worth interrogating, since it was so obviously true. For her entire life, Lucinda's mission was to look as hot as possible. She nipped, tucked, bleached, cut, plucked, plumped, shaved, lasered, tanned, crunched, squatted, and starved. Then she broke. All I Ever Wanted Was to Be Hot is a funny, provocative retrospective on the last thirty years of Western beauty standards. From Victoria's Secret to Extreme Makeover, Playboy Bunnies to the Australian media's fascination with Lara Bingle, Lucinda unfurls the tentacles of a culture hellbent on making women feel like happiness is always just five kilos away. With her offbeat humour and incisive cultural commentary Lucinda tells the unfiltered story of someone overcoming an eating disorder and rebuilding illuminating our enduring obsession with appearance by holding a bedazzled mirror up to her own beliefs A hilarious insightful deep dive into self image desirability pop culture and power A book for the modern woman laced with unflinching glorious honesty Zara McDonald and Michelle Andrews co founders of Shameless Media A funny real interrogation of Australia s body image problem and a call to arms to dismantle diet culture Chantelle Otten author and sexologist

Healthization Susanna Trnka,2025-09-30 What does it mean to be healthy Is it a measure of physical illness of a mental health condition or of emotional control In twenty first century Aotearoa New Zealand it is all of the above Being healthy in this country requires an investment of extensive work resources and time Because while it encompasses the above categories for many young people in Aotearoa New Zealand health also extends to having strong trusted friendships to feeling that one s emotions are being recognized while recognizing the emotions of others Health for these youth may also consist of creating a daily space for mindfulness while maintaining productivity working up the motivation to work out quantifying and graphing nutrition stats being able to talk openly about one s mental health and maybe even wearing the right lipstick These activities are particularly salient in Aotearoa New Zealand where the past forty years have witnessed a growing emphasis on the importance of patient self responsibility and where the state has invested heavily in health even introducing a wellbeing budget that tracks the economy via wellbeing measures All of these activities add up to a concept and a worldview that anthropologist Susanna Trnka conceptualizes as healthization Through this framework managing one s emotions keeping one s sense of balance and tracking the number of miles run swum or bicycled become overlapping all consuming activities to the point of almost encompassing life itself By analyzing ethnographic interviews with young people Trnka reveals the emotional financial and deeply personal ideas at stake as understandings of health shift in the minds of young people Often at the vanguard of new trends in mental health physical fitness and digital health technologies the youth in Aotearoa New Zealand enact what it means to be well in the twenty first century
