Prince, 2021-01-14 At the beginning of the twentieth century field artillery was a small separate unsupported branch of the U S Army By the end of World War I it had become the King of Battle a critical component of American military might Million Dollar Barrage tracks this transformation Offering a detailed account of how American artillery crews trained changed adapted and fought between 1907 and 1923 Justin G Prince tells the story of the development of modern American field artillery a tale stretching from the period when field artillery became an independent organization to when it became an equal branch of the U S Army The field artillery entered the Great War as a relatively new branch It separated from the Coast Artillery in 1907 and established a dedicated training school the School of Fire at Fort Sill in 1911 Prince describes the challenges this presented as issues of doctrine technology weapons development and combat training intersected with the problems of a peacetime army with no good industrial base His account which draws on a wealth of sources ranges from debates about U S artillery practices relative to those of Europe to discussions of the training equipping and performance of the field artillery branch during the war Prince follows the field artillery from its plunge into combat in April 1917 as an unprepared organization to its emergence that November as an effective fighting force with the Meuse Argonne Offensive proving the pivotal point in the branch s fortunes Million Dollar Barrage provides an unprecedented analysis of the ascendance of field artillery as a key factor in the nation s military dominance Start Small FINISH BIG Fred De Luca, John P. Hayes, 2012-11-20 At age seventeen Fred DeLuca borrowed 1 000 from a friend and started SUBWAY R Today with more than 38 000 stores in one hundred countries and annual sales exceeding 16.6 billion Fred DeLuca s SUBWAY is a success story with a message START SMALL FINISH BIG Publishers Weekly Review DeLuca was only 17 when he started what is now the Subway restaurant chain in 1965 he needed money to attend college and a friend offered to back him with 1 000 to start a sandwich shop in Bridgeport Conn That beginning led DeLuca to an enormously successful career in addition to being president of the chain he runs MILE a nonprofit organization that offers loans to entrepreneurs According to DeLuca there are 15 essential principles for anyone starting a small business some of which DeLuca confesses he learned the hard way he had never made a submarine sandwich before opening day of his first shop Among these pillars Believe in Your People Never Run Out of Money Keep the Faith and Profit or Perish DeLuca uses his own business experience as well as that of other successful entrepreneurs e.g the founders of Kinko s and Little Caesar s In addition to those of less well known business people Written in a conversational style the advice isn t especially original or creative However would be millionaires who are sitting at their kitchen table wondering if they should take that big step and start a business will find the book both instructive and inspirational Agent Bob Diforio Library Journal DeLuca co founder in 1965 of SUBWAY Restaurants and founder in 1996 of the Micro Investment Lending Enterprise MILE a nonprofit organization making microloans to entrepreneurs microentrepreneurs has written this humorous down to earth guide to success as a small business owner Coauthor Hayes is a writer Computer Architecture and Organization 1998 public speaker and business trainer Each chapter describes one of DeLuca s 15 key lessons and is illustrated with a real life case study None of the people in these cases is a household name but businesses such as Kinkos Little Caesars and SUBWAY are DeLuca doesn t claim that his guides form a master plan for success but he optimistically believes that anyone can become Bill Gates Lillian Vernon or Henry Lay and that his lessons will increase the chances His book also promotes and supports MILE and the last chapter and appendix are devoted to information about it and its programs Recommended for most small business collections Susan C Awe Univ of New Mexico Lib Albuquerque School ,1912 Monad ,1917 The Balance Sheet ,1925 Our Wonder World ,1914
