Scorsese and Religion Christopher B. Barnett,Clark J. Elliston,2019-09-16 Scorsese and Religion concerns the religious vision of the great American filmmaker Martin Scorsese Not only will this volume explore the foundation of Scorsese s interest in religion namely his relation to the Catholic Church but it will also highlight the religious breadth of Scorsese s corpus Ultimately this book demonstrates that Scorsese s cinematic re presentation of reality brings together various religious influences Catholicism existentialism Buddhism etc and topics such as violence morality nihilism and so on The overarching claim is that Scorsese who indeed once claimed that his whole life had been movies and religion cannot be properly understood without reflecting on the ways in which his religious interests are expressed in and through his art

Desire and Mental Health in Christianity and the Arts David Torevell, 2023-08-21 This book considers the connection between the world of mental health in the twenty first century and the traditional concept of desire in Christianity and the Arts It draws parallels between the desire for rest from anxiety among mental health sufferers with the longing for peace and happiness in Religion and the Arts The author presents Biblical philosophical and theological insights alongside artistic ones arguing that desire for rest remains at the heart of spiritual living as well as mental health recovery The chapters draw from historical and contemporary voices including Plato Augustine of Hippo Julian of Norwich Gerard Manley Hopkins Simone Weil Samuel Beckett Tennessee Williams Jean Louis Chr tien Eric Varden and others The study demonstrates why longing continues to fascinate and grip individuals creative endeavour and society at large not least in the development of the understanding of mental health It is valuable for scholars and advanced students of Christian theology and those interested in spirituality and the arts in particular

Silence and Beauty Makoto Fujimura, 2016-05-01 Internationally renowned artist Makoto Fujimura reflects on Shusaku Endo s novel Silence and grapples with the nature of art pain and culture Showing that light is yet present in darkness he uncovers deep layers of meaning in Japanese history and finds connections to how faith is lived in contexts of trauma

In Love Alfred Hayes, 2007 She had a tiny scar over the ridge of one eye She knew a dozen words in French she had never learned to drive a car I measured her once against a wall kissing her for every twelve inches and she was five feet four and a half inches without her shoes on Fifty years ago Alfred Hayes was regarded as one of the most interesting and original American novelists and he deserves to be better known today In Love is set in the Manhattan bar scene of the 1940s and reads like a Edward Hopper painting A middle aged man tells a young woman on an adjacent bar stool the story of his last love affair a relationship in the thoroughly modern sense full of misplaced lust and misunderstood emotion He depicts the boy of his tale as moody and evasive the girl as even worse It was a mostly erratic affair downbeat dysfunctional and on the brink of sinking without a trace until an unscrupulous millionaire intervened The ensuing turmoil will be recognizable to anyone who has fallen into and then out of a relationship This tale is as much an indictment of love as an elegy to it an examination of heartbreak rather than the heart itself

Buddhists and Christians James Lee Fredericks, 2004 Buddhists and Christians examines Christian teachings about other religions to argue that the next step to dialogue is comparative theology Fredericks asks why the Buddha refused to engage in God talk and suggests that understanding the answer to this question will help Christians and Buddhists to have better communication and to find that God reveals the way to mutual comprehension and deeper solidarity
