In this book, they review principles of multicultural, cross-cultural pedagogy, describe principles for selecting quality texts, and explain the importance of teaching both contemporary and ancient literature of the region. They illustrate how using these texts can engage young readers and help develop their language and literacy skills, and provide activities, lessons, and materials for various print and nonprint texts, including books such as Habibi, The Kite Runner, and Behind the Burqa: Our Life in Afghanistan and How We Escaped to Freedom and the films Osama and Reel Bad Arabs. Studying literature from and about the Middle East not only enables students to gain a deeper understanding of the world around them but also allows them to develop crucial critical thinking and literacy skills that can be applied outside the English classroom.
