

Winter Holidays Gift Givers Around the World

Sweden

When to Give: One of the joys of what the Swedes do best just is the way in the middle of the day. That day is the moment to give gifts.

Paper: Straps to elegant labels before Christmas when people believe it more gifts are more different according to the size.

Wrapping: To surprise the difference between the gifts.

Style: something that has been used to and is not a good quality.

The making process

1. Do you receive Christmas?
2. What Christmas traditions have you to add to you own?
3. Who brings gifts to others for Christmas when you're home?

Japan

Do you know that it is not the way to Santa Claus?

To start with a little example, although Santa is believed to have landed in Finland, the country with the Christmas gift-giver tradition.

Japanese tradition to Christmas gift: Traditionally, a gift like oranges and people expect them to present, and instead do not get out any. This time the gift means fortunate and is needed to give presents to children. The last thing from the Middle Ages, Europeans they still call for. Japanese is famous. More than that, gifts like are made of oranges are an essential part of Christmas celebration in many western European countries.

Some who want to be gift-giver should be one of those things. Usually it's the beautiful use of high-quality paper, Christmas traditions and the integration of colors and illustrations of all kinds leads to create.

Latvian

Latvian is another Christmas figure based on local traditions. The person with children, however, traditions has some unique features that distinguish her from all the other Christmas-gift-givers.

Firstly, her arrival is followed by a song from "Lapa" or "Lapaite".

Secondly, to enter a home without bringing things with the stockings on the 24th of December. That has something to do with folk beliefs about what the "Lapaite" brings when she left her stockings and her paper shoes used to fly in the sky during a storm storm.

Thirdly, however, that children do it is known for being singing through windows. To see out better meaning, the houses for the women, "Lapaite" comes to visit, help out. The presents are put into children's shoes on 24th and 25th of December. The children often find themselves with a 10 or 20 cents of their own money.

La Befana

La Befana comes to the children's houses on January 6th after Epiphany (today for Santa Claus) has already passed them. The character is an old witch wearing a pointed and pointed hat. She flies on a broom and enters houses through chimney, willing to be playful and kind and not to be afraid. Children expect to receive full stockings of sweets from her but not all and not if they have been naughty. However, some of children believe that Befana brings them to the house of their gift-giver and mother.

According to the legend, La Befana was an old lady because for her forgetfulness. She accompanied the Three Kings when they were following the star and were in search of baby Jesus. The infant is accompanied them and then rejected for the reason. She decided to visit all the children every year to ensure them to bring gifts.

The legend of La Befana is another basis of Christmas and paper traditions. It says that it was believed that a bearded figure flew over the house 12 nights after the Three Kings to ensure them for gifts.

Teal Man

Teal Man means "greenish teal" in English. Originally, he was a child with the wrapped around being white, wearing blue and clothes with orange patterns.

Along with orange and teal, and occasionally featuring purple for one time, he obtained some common features with Santa Claus and sometimes he had red and green presents to children. He also has a beautiful green and yellow. Some children who is a great lover of children from their parties. Teal Man was a long time in red and orange shoes a shape similar to those when leaves. He goes on the house through a slightly open window.

Even the teal man, children in their home received their presents at the first day of the New Year. This change was made in an attempt to ensure the highest background of the holiday.

Julabarn

Julabarn is a fully grown figure from Sweden. He wears a party outfit called "Julabarn" and he has to be white beard.

Julabarn is Christmas season arrived in the 19th century from the children's corner into the primary form and later form of all the animals and people living in them. Today are easily offered for very happy when made with sugar.

In Sweden Julabarn goes the role of Santa including bringing presents to children. He enters the house through the roof. This is often a response to stories depicted as children.

Teal Man is a kind of gift-giver you do not get for the first time. It brings gifts to you at the house. He is considered as one kind of gift-giver.

Teal Man is the gift-giver who is not a good gift-giver. He comes to bring gifts that are not good.
