Addressing Gaps and Advancing Scholarship in the Study of Psychological Contracts Sarah Bankins, Yannick Griep, Samantha D. Hansen, 2024-08-09 This book acknowledges the significant changes in the context and contours of the traditional employee employer relationship over the last several decades and highlights the emergence of exciting new directions for the study of psychological contracts PC New technologies and emergent forms of work are extending the temporal and spatial boundaries of employment such as through the rise of the shared economy and gig workers uptake of virtual work and flexible work arrangements and the use of off site co working spaces Technology use now permeates many aspects of jobs supported by artificial intelligence and machine learning technology Factors that motivate work are also changing as new generations of employees embrace their callings and organizations increasingly recognize their responsibilities to society and to employee wellbeing These changes are altering the traditional employer employee relationship and are key motivators of this volume The chapters in this volume chart new directions for PC research over the next decade by widening the theoretical and methodological lenses used to explore PC processes This book will be valuable to advanced students researchers and practitioners in organizational psychology organization studies workplace training and human resource management as well as those interested in improved performance of people and organizations The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of Work and Organizational Psychology

Faith-based Grants Beverly A. Browning, 2005 Both church or ministry leaders and their members are under the impression that the President and Congress have allocated millions and millions of public funds for faithbased organizations for any purpose religious or non religious and that the faithbased grant tree is full of unrestricted no strings attached ready to pick fruits also known as grant awards In this book my goal is to help churches and ministries across the United States large and small denominational and non denominational understand how to align institutions and congregations to receive the abundance intended under the Federal government s faithbased grants initiative Calendar University of Calcutta, 1906 Includes Examination Papers Catalog University of Connecticut, 1909 Biblical Scholarship and Inspiration Llewelyn John Evans, Henry Preserved Smith, 1891 Cases Argued and Decided in the Supreme Court of the United States United States.
